THE STORY OF THE THOUSAND-YEAR DOOR

AN AWFULLY LONG TIME AGO IN A STRANGE AND FAR-OFF LAND, A BIG, BUSTLING TOWN THRIVED. ALL OF ITS RESIDENTS LIVED VERY HAPPY LIVES, AND IT IS SAID THAT THE TOWN WAS VERY PROSPEROUS. BUT ONE DAY, TRAGEDY BEFELL THIS BLESSED PLACE. A GREAT CATA-CLYSM STRUCK THE TOWN AND ITS PEOPLE. DARKNESS FILLED THE SKIES, AND THE EARTH ROARED AND SHOOK IT WAS AS IF THE VERY WORLD HAD COME TO A VIOLENT END. AND IN BUT A SINGLE NIGHT, THE TOWN SANK INTO THE DEPTHS OF THE EARTH.

MARIO

That lustrous facial hair, those stylin' blue overalls: there's only one Mario. When our intrepid hero receives a request from Princess Peach to help her search for the Thousand-Year Door, he abandons his brother (again) and sets sail for the town of Rogueport.

SIR GRODUS

Sir Grodus is also searching for the Thousand-Year Door. As you can probably tell, he's the bad guy in our tale (the huge, computerized cranium is a dead giveaway). He rules the nefarious X-Naut organization with an iron fist and a scary-looking scepter.

PRINCESS PEACH

While on vacation, Princess Peach wisely decides to wander off on her own. Rarely one to get into trouble, the princess is, surprisingly, nowhere to be found when Mario arrives in Rogueport. What possibly could have happened to her?

BOWSER

When he finds out that Princess Peach is missing, Bowser immediately sets out to find the damsel in distress (with the intention of kidnapping her himself, of course). Along the way, he's sure to run into his long-time nemesis....

AS THE CENTURIES PASSED, THE TOWN'S EXISTENCE PASSED INTO FABLE. YET IN RECENT YEARS, WORD HAS SPREAD OF A THOUSAND-YEAR DOOR HIDDEN BENEATH THE CITY OF ROGUEPORT. WHAT'S BEHIND THE DOOR, NO ONE KNOWS FOR CERTAIN. COULD IT HOLD A LEGENDARY TREASURE? A POWERFUL RELIC? MUSTARD OF DOOM? THERE'S ONLY ONE WAY TO FIND OUT...

MADAME FLURRIE

MARIO'S PARTY

Mario will meet quite the eclectic group of friends over the course of his journey. They all have little idiosyncracies (from an unhealthy infatuation with Mario's mustache to an insistence on calling the Italian plumber Gonzales), but the capped crusader wouldn't get very far without them.

BASIC CONTROLS

YOU'LL NEED TO MASTER YOUR MUSTACHIOED LEADING MAN'S MOVES TO COLLECT ELUSIVE ITEMS AND FIGHT WILY FOES IN YOUR EPIC QUEST TO SAVE PRINCESS PEACH. THESE PAGES ARE YOUR GUIDE TO THE ESSENTIALS.

CONTROLLER FUNCTIONS

MOVE

Tilt the Control Stick to negotiate the environment and to move the occasional object. When standing on or near a warp pipe, push the Control Stick in the direction of the opening to enter the pipe.

HAMMER

The hammer can break blocks, trip switches and nail your enemies. Simply press the B Button while facing your target to bring down the hurt.

USE ABILITIES

The R and Y Buttons let Mario show off his accursed abilities. Press Y when standing on an appropriate panel to turn Mario into an airplane or boat. The R Button lets him turn sideways or go tubular.

USE PARTNERS

Each party member possesses skills that are crucial to solving many puzzles. Familiarize yourself with each partner's gifts and press X to draw upon them.

JUMP, TALK & EXAMINE

The A Button lets you initiate conversations, read signs, search areas, open doors and jump chasms. For everything other than jumping, watch your surroundings for contextual clues. An exclamation point indicates an object interaction whereas a word bubble denotes discussion.

START/PAUSE MENU

When you need to take a break, press the Start/Pause Button to open the menu screen. From there you can check character statistics, switch party members, view your Gear, organize badges and read Journal information including Tattle Log entries.

SHORTCUT TO MENUS

Each direction on the Control Pad is mapped to a handy menu for quick access. Push Up to open the Gear menu. Tap Left to switch partners on the fly. You can change and view your badges by pushing Right. Down opens the Journal.

UPGRADE YOUR JUMP & HAMMER

Although your basic jumping and hammering skills are adequate, the real fun begins when Toadette upgrades your abilities. In addition to increasing the power of your leaps, you'll learn to crush obstacles with your feet and your mighty mallet. Toadette's tutorials are extremely helpful, so pay attention!

BOOTS

LEVEL 2

You'll learn the Spin Jump deep within the Great Tree. In noncombat situations, you can execute the move to activate large switches and bust through weak floor panels. Press the A Button, then press it again in midjump. During a fight, a Spin Jump can dish out massive damage to certain enemies. Master your button-press timing to maximize each battle turn—flubbed rhythm can cost you valuable HP.

LEVEL 3

Stylish Ultra Boots enable you to launch to great heights. You can knock items from their high perches and reach hanging pipes to circumvent obstacles. While standing, press and hold the A Button. Rotate the Control Stick clockwise until he crinkles into an accordion. When you let go, he'll fly to the sky. Look for ground cues such as spray paint, shadows or lines when positioning yourself. The Ultra Boots are also useful in combat.

LEVEL 3

At the start, your hammer can break only small blocks. You'll encounter larger and stronger ones as you progress, but don't sweat it if you find a crate that you can't seem to bust. At level two, you'll get to crush the bigger yellow boxes. By level three, you'll have the ability to destroy virtually any box that stands in your way. Press and hold the B Button. After landing a hit, continue to hold B and rotate the Control Stick clockwise until Mario completes a full twist. Release B to land a devastating blow. Powered-up combat swings can knock opponents into each other for massive damage.

PLANE, PAPER, TUBE & BOAT MODES

On more than one occasion, Mario will be duped and release a vindictive entity from a locked chest. His punishment for kindness is a string of supposedly cruel "curses" that actually enable you to perform some nifty tricks. Boat and Plane modes are context sensitive—you'll need to stand on a specific panel to activate them. Tube and Paper modes are available during regular travel.

Poor, sweet Mario seems never to have heard the adage "Once bitten, twice shy." Your Good Samaritan acts only bring out the worst in some people (or creatures). When you locate a dark chest, converse with the person trapped inside then locate the key, which is usually nearby. Liberation of the chatty prisoner triggers a rather humorous dialogue followed by a demo of your newfound powers.

PLANE MODE

Press the Y Button while on a plane panel to initiate take-off. Move the Control Stick left and right to adjust your speed and altitude.

PAPER MODE

Hold the R Button to turn Mario sideways. The skinny Mario can access items and locations by squeezing through narrow passageways.

TUBE MODE

You can form yourself into a tube and roll around the town by holding the R Button and rotating the Control Stick. The tube can even jump!

BOAT MODE

Sail through sewers and streams by pressing the Y Button while atop a boat panel. To change back, simply hit Y again near a boat panel.

BATTLE BASICS

MORE THAN A FEW UNFRIENDLY FACES WOULD LIKE TO SEE MARIO FAIL IN HIS QUEST, AND THEY'LL DO EVERYTHING IN THEIR POWER TO MAKE THAT HAPPEN. FORTUNATELY, OUR HERO HAS THE MEANS TO FIGHT BACK.

RULES OF ENGAGEMENT

Battle commences when you come in contact with an enemy on the field. You and your foes will then take turns performing battle actions (you'll control both Mario and his partner). The turn order for each round is illustrated below. When it's your turn, select a command category with the Control Pad and press A, then choose a specific action and press A again to execute it.

MARIO'S TURN

Mario can choose from the following commands: Jump, Hammer, Items, Special and Tactics. Refer to page 9 for more information on each one.

PARTNER'S TURN

Your partners are limited to the Attack, Items and Tactics commands. Each ally has a different selection of attacks, however.

ENEMIES' TURN

All of your foes act in succession (though not necessarily from front to back). When they're finished, it will be Mario's turn again.

STRIKE FIRST

If you initiate a battle by jumping on an enemy or hitting it with your hammer, you'll sneak in a preemptive strike with Mario at the beginning of the encounter (before the plumber's first turn). An exclamation point will appear above an enemy's head when it becomes aware of your presence, and if it hits you during that time, the baddie will strike first.

VICTORY!

Should you emerge victorious, you'll receive Star Points, coins and possibly items. The number of Star Points you'll receive for defeating a particular enemy decreases as your level rises.

GAME OVER

If Mario's Heart Points drop to zero, the game will end and you'll have to start over from your last save point. If your partner goes down, he or she will be unable to act, but you can keep fighting as long as Mario remains standing.

BATTLE COMMANDS

Below are all of the battle commands available to Mario at the beginning of the game. (His partners can also use Items and Tactics, but each has different options under its Attack command—see pages 14-17.) You can add more moves to your repertoire with certain badges (see page 13).

At the beginning of each turn, you can press the Y Button to have Mario and his partner switch places. The character in the front typically receives more damage, so if someone's running low on HP, it's a good idea to move him or her to the rear. You should also consider your characters' positions when formulating your plan of attack (one of them may be more effective versus the enemy in the front).

JUMP

Mario's trademark maneuver, the Jump command enables you to attack enemies by stomping on them. You can target almost any foe with it.

If you try to stomp an enemy that has a spike on its head or possesses any other characteristic hazardous to your feet, you'll take damage.

HAMMER

Mario's other primary weapon is his trusty hammer. Unlike the jump, the mallet lets you strike most opponents safely.

With the basic hammer attack, you can target only the enemy in the front, and only if it's on or near the ground.

ITEMS

You'll find a variety of items that replenish your HP or FP. You can use them on either Mario or his partner during one of their turns.

Many other items serve offensive purposes. Some target only a single foe, while others strike every enemy onstage.

Some items can affect a character's statistics, either positively or negatively. Most last a limited number of turns.

SPECIAL

Every time you finish a chapter, you'll receive a new Special move. Each of the powerful techniques consumes Star Power.

TACTICS

SWAP PARTNER

You can swap in a different partner at any time. Choose the ally who's best suited for the situation at hand.

APPEAL

Use the Appeal tactic to win over the crowd and replenish some of your Star Power. (See page 11 for details.)

DEFEND

The Defend tactic reduces the amount of damage you'll take for the remainder of the turn.

RUN AWAY

You can also try to run away. Press the A Button as rapidly as possible to increase your chances of escaping.

PLAN OF ATTACK

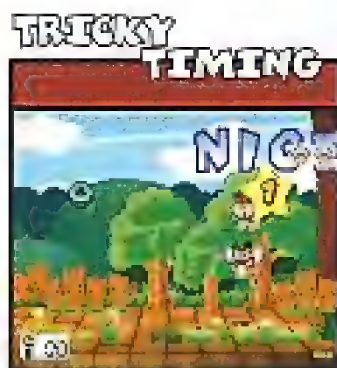

Before you decide how to spend a turn, it's important to consider your characters' capabilities. Let's say you're facing two enemies. The one in front is a ground-based foe with only two HP remaining, and the one in back has five HP and can fly. If your partner is Koops, you should have Mario attack the enemy in the rear. Koops typically can't deal as much damage as Mario, and his attacks are limited to enemies on the ground. Efficient use of each turn is the key to victory.

ACTION COMMANDS

While you're executing an attack, you can give it some extra oomph with additional Controller inputs called Action Commands. The commands change depending on the move—instructions will appear at the bottom of the screen when you select an attack. You'll know you did it right when "Nice" appears above your target. The basic concepts for the different types of Action Commands are described below, though there are numerous variations on each one.

Tilt and hold the Control Stick left, then release it as soon as the red light flashes at the end of the sequence. The length and speed of the sequence vary from move to move.

With many aerial attacks, such as Mario's Jump and Goombella's Headbuck, you can press the A Button just before you land on your opponent to bounce back up and deliver an additional strike.

WITHOUT COMMAND

WITH COMMAND

A couple of moves require you to align a cursor in the center of a targeting reticule. With some of them, you'll have to manipulate the cursor yourself; with others, you'll just have to stop it at the right time.

The Action Commands for most attacks involve prolonged button presses. You may need to hold a single button, mash one as quickly as possible or input an entire sequence.

DEFENSIVE ACTION COMMANDS

To perform a Guard Action Command, press A just before an enemy strikes you. Guarding will reduce the amount of damage you take from the foe's attack and help you resist status effects.

GUARD

Some attacks are trickier to defend against than others. When you're facing an enemy for the first time, just do standard Guards until you get the timing down. It's important to note that a successful Guard will also protect you from negative status effects, such as poison.

You must time the action precisely, however; tapping A repeatedly won't work. You can press the B Button instead to execute a Superguard, but your timing has to be even more precise.

SUPERGUARD

To do a Superguard, you must press the B Button at the exact moment the enemy's attack makes contact with your character. It's a lot more difficult to pull off than a standard Guard, but the payoff is substantial—it will negate the enemy's attack completely, and it'll damage your opponent.

STAR POWER

Your Star Power gauge is made up of power dots located next to the star icon at the top of the battle screen. Each dot represents a single unit of power. When you have Star Power available, you can use a Special move. Each one consumes a certain number of units, as listed next to its name (see below for how to replenish your Star Power). You'll earn an additional dot and learn another Special move every time you acquire a new Crystal Star.

Like regular attacks, each Special move has its own Action Commands. Look at the bottom of the screen for instructions.

THE AUDIENCE

Battles take place onstage in front of an audience. You can recover your Star Power by getting the audience excited with Action Commands. The more thrilling your battles are, the more people will come to watch you fight. (The number of spectators is displayed in the lower left-hand corner of the battle screen.) And the more people there are in the audience, the faster your power dots will refill. You can use the Appeal command to win over the crowd and replenish your Star Power even more.

Unfortunately, not everyone in the audience is an adoring fan. When the X Button appears below your party, it means a spectator is about to throw something onstage. Quickly scan the crowd and press X if you see an object that could be hazardous to your health—your active character will then go into the audience and bonk the troublemaker. If someone's about to toss you a useful item, however, simply ignore the button prompt to receive your gift.

Every 10 levels, you'll receive a new theater with greater seating capacity, enabling you to replenish your Star Power at a much faster clip. See the next page for more information on leveling up.

STYLISH MOVES

If you press the A Button at the right time during an attack, you'll pull off a Stylish move that will make the crowd go nuts (it won't deal extra damage, though). The timing for each attack is different, but if you equip the Timing Tutor badge (see page 111), an exclamation point will appear above your character to prompt you when to press A. Some attacks give you multiple opportunities to be stylish.

BINGO!

An icon will appear next to your Star Power gauge whenever you nail an Action Command. If you have two matching icons and you pull off an additional Action Command, you'll get to take the Bingo! wheel for a spin. Press the A Button to try to match the third icon to the first two (or not, if you have a pair of poison mushrooms). If you're successful, people will swarm into the theater and you'll receive the benefit (or the punishment in the case of three poison mushrooms) that corresponds to the icons, as listed below.

 RECOVER ALL STAR POWER

 RECOVER ALL HP, FP AND STAR POWER

 LOSE HALF OF HP, FP AND STAR POWER

LEVEL UP

At the end of a battle, you'll receive Star Points for all of the enemies you've defeated. Once you've accumulated 100 points, Mario's level will increase by one. The number of points you'll receive for each foe depends on your current level (you'll receive more points for taking out a Goomba when you're at level one, for example, than you would at level 10). It's important to level up on a regular basis—if you flee from too many confrontations, you could find yourself outmatched later on.

Whenever you level up, your Heart Points, Flower Points and Star Power will be completely replenished. If you're approaching 100 Star Points, it might be a good idea to save that 'shroom.

CHOOSING YOUR BONUS

Each time you level up, you'll have the option to increase your maximum Heart Points by five, Flower Points by five or Badge Points by three. Which attribute you should choose depends largely on your personal play style, but the following are our recommendations.

HP

Increase your maximum Heart Points fairly often, especially early on or if you're frequently on the verge of kicking the bucket. As you advance further into the game and your badge collection grows, boosting your HP will become less important.

FP

Though many techniques consume FP, it's definitely the least crucial of the three attributes. Boost it only on occasion.

BP

Being able to wear lots of badges makes you incredibly versatile. The more you have in your possession, the more you should increase your max BP.

BATTLE POINTERS

We've covered all the basics, but there are a few more things to keep in mind as you head into battle. Heed the following pointers, and always take your own strengths and weaknesses into consideration

FLIP 'EM OVER

Some enemies, such as Koopa Troopas and Clefts, have a pretty high Defense while they're on their feet. Stomp on them (or use the Quake Hammer) to flip 'em over and expose their soft underbellies. They'll take a heck of a lot more damage that way.

CLEAN SWEEP

Always keep items on hand that are capable of damaging multiple adversaries at once (Fire Flowers, Ice Storms, etc.). They can be lifesavers if you're confronted by a large group of especially dangerous foes, or if you're running low on HP and need to put an end to the fight quickly.

POWER UP YOUR PARTNERS

The rest of your party isn't affected by Star Points, but you can power up your allies at Merlon's house in Rogueport. For three Shine Sprites, the old man will increase a partner's HP and teach him or her a new move. At first, you can increase each character's ranking only once. After Chapter 5, though, Merlon can power up your partners a second time if you bring him a special item (see page 25).

when formulating a plan of attack. If you're facing multiple types of enemies, for instance, concentrate first on the one you've had the most difficulty guarding against.

A SECOND CHANCE

The Life Shroom is quite possibly the most useful item in the game. If either Mario or his partner falls in battle, the mushroom will resurrect the combatant instantly and restore 10 Heart Points. Unfortunately, Life Shrooms are rather expensive, so you'll want to save them for boss battles from which you can't run away.

BEWARE OF ITEMS

Every once in a while you'll see an enemy bring an item into battle. If it's something particularly potent, make the weapon-bearer your first target. At the battle's conclusion (assuming you win), you might have the opportunity to add the item to your inventory.

BADGES

BADGES? WE DON'T NEED NO STINKING BADGES! SORRY, WE COULDN'T RESIST. IN ACTUALITY, YOU'LL NEED AS MANY BADGES AS YOU CAN GET YOUR HANDS ON. WEARING THEM IS VITAL TO YOUR SUCCESS.

BADGES OF POWER

Throughout your adventure, you'll find a variety of badges that empower you with new attacks, abilities or bonuses. For a listing of every badge in the game (including locations and descriptions), refer to pages 108-111.

IN BATTLE

The vast majority of badges play a role in battle. Some add new Jump or Hammer techniques to Mario's repertoire, while others bestow him or his partner with new abilities or improved attributes. Experiment with different combinations to find out which ones work best for you.

ON THE FIELD

A few badges affect Mario on the field. The Bump Attack badge, for example, lets you bump into weak foes to defeat them without battling. Some, such as the W Emblem badge (which dresses up our hero as Wario), are merely for your amusement.

EQUIPPING BADGES

To benefit from a badge's effects, you must equip it. Each badge requires a certain number of Badge Points, and you can wear it only if you have that many points available.

When you unequip a badge, the BP required to wear it will once again become available. You can then use those points to equip a different badge. You can remove and equip badges as often as you like, so always wear those that will be most effective for the situation at hand.

EXPANDING YOUR BADGE COLLECTION

There are four ways to acquire badges. You can trade Star Pieces to Dazzle for them, you can purchase them from Charleton or the Lovely Howz of Badges, you can win them from the Pianta Parlor and you can find them in the field. The first three options all pertain to Rogueport (see page 25 for more information). The badges in the field are called out on the maps throughout the guide (see page 18).

TRADE

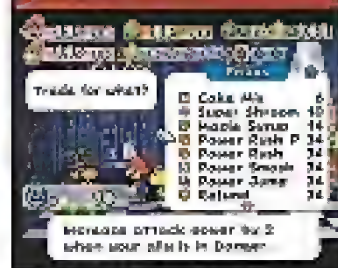

Dazzle hangs out in the sewers beneath Rogueport. He has a wide variety of badges that he'll trade to you for Star Pieces.

PURCHASE

Both Charleton and the Lovely Howz of Badges update their inventory from time to time, and both sell badges you can't find anywhere else.

WIN

You can redeem your tokens for badges at the Pianta Parlor. The selection will expand when you complete certain side quests.

FIND

You'll find badges inside treasure chests and item blocks throughout each area. Additionally, some enemies will drop badges on occasion.

MARIO'S PARTNERS

EVEN A HERO AS GREAT AS MARIO NEEDS A LITTLE ASSISTANCE NOW AND THEN (JUST ASK LUIGI). FORTUNATELY, YOU'LL MEET SOME HELPFUL COMPANIONS ON YOUR JOURNEY.

THE MAGNIFICENT SEVEN

A new partner will join your party during each of the first four chapters. (Goombella will hook up with you at the beginning of the prologue, and Ms. Mowz's inclusion in your group is optional.) On the following pages, we'll help you get to know them all.

ON THE FIELD

Each of your companions possesses a special ability that you'll utilize over the course of the game to solve puzzles, get past obstacles and just make your life a little easier.

IN BATTLE

Your partners start with the top two attacks listed in their sections on the following pages. When they level up at Merlon's the first time, they'll learn the third attack. If you take them back to level up again, they'll learn the fourth attack. Below the brief description of each move, you'll see how much damage it does at each level.

GOOMBELLA

Goombella is the first companion to join Mario on his journey. She's a smart (though somewhat sassy) Goomba girl with aspirations to become an archaeologist. Press the X Button to ask her about your current location or the person standing in front of you.

HEADBONK

FP: 0

The Headbonk is an aerial attack similar to Mario's Jump. Press the A Button just before you hit an enemy to bounce up and bonk it again.

LEVEL ONE: 1 or 2 HP
LEVEL TWO: 2 or 4 HP
LEVEL THREE: 3 or 6 HP

TATTLE

FP: 0

Goombella's Tattle ability doesn't deal any damage, but it allows you to view an enemy's description and see its HP in battle. Press A when the small cursor lines up in the center of the targeting reticule.

MULTIBONK

FP: 3

With the Multibonk, Goombella can keep bonking foes until you miss an Action Command. As with the Headbonk, press A just before you make contact with your target.

LEVEL THREE: UNLIMITED HP

RALLY WINK

FP: 4

The Rally Wink gives Mario the courage to launch an extra attack during the round (regardless of whether he's already taken his turn). Tap the A and B Buttons as shown onscreen to fill the gauge past the "OK" point.

KOOPS

Koops is a timid Koopa who wants to be tougher for his girlfriend, Koopie Koo. In the field, you can press X to launch Koops and retrieve distant items. After hurling him, you can hold your companion in place by keeping your thumb on the the X Button.

SHELL TOSS

FP: 0

For his basic attack, Koops tosses himself at the foremost ground-dwelling enemy. Hold the Control Stick left and release it when the red circle in the middle of the meter lights up.

LEVEL ONE: 1 or 2 HP
 LEVEL TWO: 2 or 3 HP
 LEVEL THREE: 3 or 5 HP

POWER SHELL

FP: 3

Koops's Power Shell is similar to the Shell Toss, but it pelts every enemy on the ground. Hold the Control Stick left and release it when the red circle at the end of the meter lights up.

LEVEL ONE: 1 or 2 HP
 LEVEL TWO: 2 or 3 HP
 LEVEL THREE: 3 or 5 HP

SHELL SHIELD

FP: 4

The Shell Shield shelters Mario from attacks with a giant shell (we're not sure where Koops pulls it from). For maximum protection, press A when the "OK" needle is in the red.

SHELL SLAM

FP: 6

The überpowerful Shell Slam strikes every ground-based enemy, and ignores their DEF stats if you execute it well. Flick the Control Stick left repeatedly to fill the meter.

LEVEL THREE: 1 to 6 HP

MADAME FLURRIE

Flurrie is a former stage star, and a cloud spirit who can control the wind. With her by your side, press and hold the X Button to blow away certain objects or to daze enemies momentarily so you can walk past them.

BODY SLAM

FP: 0

With the Body Slam, Flurrie brings her impressive amplitude crashing down on an enemy from above. Manipulate the Control Stick to align the cursor in the center of the targeting reticle.

 LEVEL TWO: 2 or 3 HP
 LEVEL THREE: 3 or 5 HP

GALE FORCE

FP: 4

Flurrie's Gale Force uses her amazing lung capacity to attack every enemy onstage with a powerful gust of wind. Hold and release the A Button in time with the onscreen indicator to fill the gauge. If you pull it off, Flurrie may literally blow your opponents away.

LIP LOCK

FP: 3

The Lip Lock sucks away the front enemy's HP and adds it to Flurrie's with a wet, sloppy kiss. To fill the gauge, hold the A Button only while the red circles fit up.

LEVEL TWO: 2 or 3 HP
 LEVEL THREE: 3 or 5 HP

DODGY FOG

FP: 4

Use the Dodgy fog to render the object of Flurrie's affection (aka Mario) almost impossible to hit for the next few turns. Tilt the Control Stick in time with the onscreen prompts. The directions will change each time you use the move.

YOSHI

You'll name this newborn Yoshi yourself when he hatches in Chapter 3, but for the sake of clarity, we'll refer to him by the name of his species: Press X to hop on the little guy's back and move more quickly. While you're riding him, you can press the A Button to float through the air for a brief time.

GROUND POUND

FP: 0

If you select the Ground Pound, Yoshi will drop on an enemy from above, crushing it repeatedly. Mash the R Button as quickly as possible to fill the gauge as Yoshi approaches his target.

LEVEL ONE: 1 or 2 HP
LEVEL TWO: 2 or 3 HP
LEVEL THREE: 3 or 5 HP

GULP

FP: 4

The trademark move of the species, Gulp inhales the front enemy and spits it out at another opponent. Hold the R Button, and release it when the circle at the end of the meter lights up.

LEVEL ONE: 1 or 2 HP
LEVEL TWO: 2 or 3 HP
LEVEL THREE: 3 or 5 HP

MINI-EGG

FP: 3

With the Mini-Egg attack, Yoshi throws eggs at enemies to shrink them and reduce their Attack power. Press A when the circles light up.

LEVEL TWO: 2 or 3 HP
LEVEL THREE: 3 or 5 HP

STAMPEDE

FP: 6

The Stampede calls in a herd of Yoshis to attack all ground-based enemies. Alternate between pressing L and R to fill the gauge and summon as many of the dinosaurs as possible.

VIVIAN

Vivian is one of the Shadow Sirens that work for Sir Grodus, but she joins Mario when he shows her an act of kindness. Though she suffers from an inferiority complex, she's perhaps the best partner in the game. Press the X Button to pull Mario into the shadows, where nobody can find him.

SHADE FIST

FP: 0

The Shade Fist can set any foe aflame with a burning punch. Press the button that appears onscreen when Vivian pops up in front of her target.

LEVEL ONE: 1 or 2 HP
LEVEL TWO: 2 or 4 HP
LEVEL THREE: 3 or 6 HP

VEIL

FP: 1

Veil lets Mario and Vivian hide in the shadows to avoid your foes' next round of attacks. Input the button sequence that appears onscreen. Your reemergence counts as your turn, so your opponents will get to act next.

FIERY JINX

FP: 6

The powerful Fiery Jinx can set all of your foes ablaze. As with Shade Fist, the flames will deal one point of damage at the end of every turn. Press the buttons in order as they appear onscreen.

LEVEL TWO: 2 or 3 HP
LEVEL THREE: 3 or 5 HP

INFATUATE

FP: 4

With Infatuate, Vivian blows a kiss to every enemy onstage in an effort to confuse them for a few turns. Press A the instant a heart appears over a foe.

ADMIRAL BOBBERY

Admiral Bobbery is a salty old Bob-omb sailor who was once married to the lovely Scarlette. Press the X Button to pick him up and throw him. After walking a few steps, he'll explode (you can expedite the process by pressing X again).

BOMB

FP: 0

Bobbery's basic Bomb attack is an explosion that hits the closest ground-based foe. Hold the A Button and release it when the circle at the end of the meter lights up.

LEVEL ONE: 1 or 2 HP
LEVEL TWO: 2 or 3 HP
LEVEL THREE: 3 or 5 HP

BOMB SQUAD

FP: 3

If you select the Bomb Squad, Bobbery will throw three bombs that will explode at the end of the next round. Press A when the cursor is aimed at your intended target.

LEVEL ONE: 1 or 2 HP
LEVEL TWO: 2 or 3 HP
LEVEL THREE: 3 or 5 HP

HOLD FAST

FP: 4

Hold Fast damages any enemy that attacks Bobbery directly. Press A when each of the three red circles lights up. The duration of the effect depends on how many of the circles you hit.

LEVEL TWO: 2 or 3 HP
LEVEL THREE: 3 or 5 HP

BOB-OMBAST

FP: 9

The Bob-ombast consumes a lot of FP, but it punishes every foe on stage with a massive blast. Mash the A Button as quickly as you can to fill the gauge while Bobbery approaches the enemy.

LEVEL THREE: 1 to 6 HP

MS. MOWZ

To convince Ms. Mowz to join your party, you must complete the Elusive Badge side quest that's posted in the Trouble Center after Chapter 4 (see page 124). Once she's in your company, press the X Button to have her sniff out any items or objects hidden nearby.

LOVE SLAP

FP: 0

If you pull it off as well as possible, the ground-based Love Slap will ignore your target's Defense stat. Quickly and repeatedly flick the Control Stick from left to right to fill the gauge.

LEVEL ONE: 1 or 2 HP
LEVEL TWO: 2 or 4 HP
LEVEL THREE: 3 or 6 HP

KISS THIEF

FP: 2

Kiss Thief allows Ms. Mowz to steal an enemy's badge or item. Press the A Button after the gauge passes the "OK" point but before it reaches the end of the bar.

TEASE

FP: 3

Tease disorients enemies with some of Ms. Mowz's sly moves, making them dizzy for a few turns. Alternate between holding and releasing the A Button to fill the gauge gradually, but don't let it overflow.

SMOOCH

FP: 10

Ms. Mowz's Smooch recovers Mario's HP with a friendly kiss. It consumes more FP than any other move in the game, but it can replenish up to 10 of the plumber's Heart Points. Alternate between tapping A and B to fill the gauge.

HOW TO USE THE GUIDE

BEFORE YOU EMBARK ON YOUR QUEST TO OPEN THE THOUSAND-YEAR DOOR, TAKE A MOMENT TO FAMILIARIZE YOURSELF WITH THE ELEMENTS OF THIS GUIDE'S WALK-THROUGH PAGES.

The Enemies box lists each foe that you'll encounter in the area, with the creature's picture, its HP, ATK, and DEF, as well as the page number on which you can find a brief description of it in the Tattle Log section of the guide.

SHOP
The Shop chart displays a complete list of the items for sale at the boutique in the area, along with the cost for each article.

Every item and important object in the area is called out with an icon on the map. Refer to the key below.

After Chapter 5, he can power up each partner a second time if you bring him the Up Arrow from Hooktail Castle (see page 31).

ZESS T.'S KITCHEN

After you replace Zess T.'s contact lens (see page 26), she'll go back into her kitchen. You can then give her items to have her cook dishes for you. See pages 121-123 for more information.

MERLEE'S HOUSE

If you have Merlee's charm, you'll occasionally receive various bonuses in battle. The frequency of the bonuses depends on which path you choose. The Cheap Path costs five coins, the Normal Path is 20 coins and the Special Path will run you 50 coins, but it's well worth it.

CHET RIPPO'S ADJUSTMENT HOUSE

For a fee, Chet Rippo can take points away from your HP, FP or BP total and apply them to one of the other two categories. He can also take a rank from one of your companions and give it to another.

PIANTA PARLOR

At the Pianta Parlor, you'll find slot machines, as well as minigames based on your paper abilities. To play, you must exchange coins for Pianta tokens. Each token costs three coins. The slot machines are accessible from the get-go, but to play the minigames, you'll have to earn membership cards by solving certain troubles (see pages 124-127). You can exchange your tokens at the counter for the prizes listed below (some prizes won't become available until you've acquired a particular membership card).

1 MEET GOOMBELLA

As you walk toward town, you'll see a couple of unfriendly types accosting a young Goomba. When you get closer, the leader of the thugs will attack, thrusting you into your first battle. He's a pushover, so take the opportunity to get used to the controls. Afterward, follow the Goomba through the angry mob.

2 MISSING PRINCESS

You'll bump into Toadsworth at the town square. The old caretaker will inform you that Princess Peach has vanished. He'll leave it up to you to find her while he relaxes at the nearby inn. Intrigued by the situation, Goombella will decide to join your party.

3 PROFESSOR FRANKLY

When you enter the east side of town a chief will bump into you and steal half your money. Return to the square, head down the back alley and open the red door to your left. Once you've retrieved your coins, proceed to the house at point 3 to meet Professor Frankly.

4 INTO THE SEWERS

Professor Frankly will lead you to a warp pipe and offer to give you a brief tutorial on Action Commands. To travel through the pipe, jump on top of it and press Down on the Control Stick. You'll emerge in the sewers beneath Rogueport. Head right and take care of the Goombas that harass Goombella.

5 MYSTERIOUS TREASURE CHEST

After you defeat the Goombas, climb the stairs and ride the moving platform to the warp pipe behind the fence. Jump down the pipe then follow the path until you come to a pair of yellow blocks. If you smash the blocks with your hammer, you'll reveal another warp pipe. Take it to the room at point 5, then hit the blue Block and ascend the stairs that unfold. In the next room, you'll hear a voice coming from the black treasure chest. It'll ask you to search for a Black Key, which you'll find if you simply fall off the ledge to the left in the previous room.

6 PAPER CURSE

When you unlock the treasure chest, the thing inside will "curse" you with your first paper ability: Plane mode. While you're standing on a paper-airplane panel, you can press the Y Button to fold yourself into an airplane and take flight. Tilt the Control Stick back to raise your nose, and forward to lower it. Press B to return to normal.

7 TEST FLIGHT

You can try out your new ability on the panel at point 7. Tilt your nose up a little bit so you make it to the ledge on the other side of the room, then head through the doorway to your left.

WEST SIDE

If you try to enter the west side of Rogueport, a woman will tell you that she's looking for her missing contact lens and instruct you not to take another step. She never will find the contact, so you'll have to move eventually, at which point you'll accidentally step on the lens. As retribution, she'll stand in front of the west-side entrance and refuse to move unless you bring her another contact. You can place an order for one at the item shop, but it won't arrive until after Chapter 1.

EAST SIDE

To get past the guard at the east side of town, you'll have either to pay him 10 coins or to beat him in a fight. He's far too strong for you at the beginning of the game, and there's no reason to explore what lies behind him until later, so save your coins. Once you leave the area, you'll have to pay the toll again anyway the next time you want to get through.

WHO'S HUNGRY FOR CALAMARI?

STAND ON THE PEDESTAL IN FRONT OF THE THOUSAND-YEAR DOOR TO BEGIN YOUR SEARCH FOR THE CRYSTAL STARS. YOUR FIRST DESTINATION IS PETAL MEADOWS. HEAD BACK DOWN TO THE SEWERS AFTER YOUR CONVERSATION WITH PROFESSOR FRANKLY, THEN TAKE OFF FROM THE PAPER-AIRPLANE PANEL TO YOUR RIGHT AND FLY TO THE LEDGE IN FRONT OF THE DOOR. IN THE NEXT ROOM, HAMMER THE TENTACLE THAT'S COMING OUT OF THE WATER TO INITIATE A BATTLE WITH A HUMONGOUS BLOOPER. TAKE OUT BOTH TENTACLES TO KNOCK THE GIANT SQUID TO THE GROUND. THEN FINISH OFF THE BODY. AFTERWARD, JUMP ACROSS THE TWO MOVING PLATFORMS ON TOP OF THE WATER AND TAKE THE WARP PIPE TO PETAL MEADOWS.

1 BUILD A BRIDGE

When you get to the river, examine the dark-green bushes nearby to reveal a warp pipe. Use it to reach the hills in the background, then head to your right and jump on the blue switch. A sequence of pages will turn to construct a bridge over the river, allowing you to cross. Before you do, however, be sure to pick up the Star Piece in the background.

2 MAYORAL VISIT

The gate that leads east out of Petalburg is shut, so you'll have to stop by the mayor's house to get permission to leave. No matter how you answer his questions, the old Koopa will renege on his offer of a reward for defeating Hooktail, and he'll continue to call you Murphy.

3 I'VE GOT THE POW-ER

Examine one of the pedestals that the Bald Clowns are standing on to lure them down and initiate a battle. The rock-hard bodies are impervious to regular attacks, so use a POW Block to smash 'em. Afterward, the door to your right will open. (Use another POW Block to defeat the Bristles in the following chamber.)

4 SUPER FUN QUIRK QUIZ

Talk to the Throwtop and agree to challenge him. Rather than engage you in battle, he'll put your mental prowess to the test by asking you the following questions. Of course, because you've purchased this guide and we've provided all of the correct answers, the only thing really being tested is your ability to read.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

1. What is hidden in this place?	STONE KEYS
2. How much do a Mushroom and a Fire Flower cost in Petalburg?	12 COINS
3. What is the name of the mayor of Petalburg?	KROOP
4. Where is the Crystal Star?	HOOPTAIL CASTLE
5. How can one get from Petal Plains to Rogueport?	GO THROUGH A PIPE
6. Which of the following creatures have hands?	KODPA TROOPAS
7. What number question is this?	QUESTION SEVEN

5 ATTACK OF THE FUZZIES

Head through the tunnels to the left and right to acquire the Moon and Sun Stones. When you return to the warp pipe afterward, a Gold Fuzzy will attack you. Once you've depleted half of its health, it'll summon a Fuzzy Horde. Continue to focus your attacks on the Gold Fuzzy—once you've defeated it, the Horde will run away.

6 TO HOOPTAIL CASTLE

Return to the strange rock formation at the beginning of Petal Meadows and insert the Moon Stone and the Sun Stone into the corresponding slots. Hold Koops in a Shell Toss near one of the blue blocks that appears, then move to the other block and hit both at the same time. The warp pipe that leads to Hoop Tail Castle will open if you're successful.

HOOKTAIL CASTLE

MANY A BRAVE ADVENTURER HAS ENTERED HOOKTAIL CASTLE, ONLY TO END UP AS A PILE OF BONES. NOW THE LAND MUST PIN ITS HOPES ON A SLIGHTLY OVERWEIGHT PLUMBER AND A COWARDLY KOOPA.

You won't be able to reach the Last Stand P badge until you're almost to the top of the castle. See tip 14 for more information.

LAST STAND P

LATER
After Chapter 5, return here with Admiral Bobbery and blow a hole in the wall to retrieve the Up Arrow for Medea.

UP ARROW

1 AERIAL APPROACH

The bridge to Hooktail Castle is out, so you'll need to find some other way to reach the gate. Drop to the platforms below the bridge first to grab the HP Plus badge, then head back inside the room to your left and bounce off the spring to the upper level.

Spend six coins to replenish your health if needed, then go outside and take off from the paper-airplane panel. To make it across the water, you'll have to tilt the Control Stick left a bit to give yourself more lift.

2 LEARNING FROM TRAGEDY

At point 2 on the map, Koops will spot what he believes to be the remains of his father. If you tell him to read the letter in the deceased Koops's hand, you'll learn that Hooktail's weakness is crickets. Though that's sure to dampen your fear of the dragon somewhat, the letter also warns not to give in to your kinder nature when facing the beast.

3 BONES THUGS-N-HAMMERS

When you examine the Red Bones in front of the door, dozens of Dull Bones will suddenly swarm you. Use your hammer to clear a path through the undead mob, and engage the Red Bones in battle. Place Koops in front and use his Power Shell to cut down the Dull Bones that fight alongside the crimson skeleton, then boss the leader with Maria's hammer.

4 BLOCK PARTY

Hit the purple switch at point 4 to lower the purple lift next to one of the large gray blocks nearby. Jump across the blocks and smash the yellow one with your Hammer, then drop back onto the lower platform and hit the yellow switch to raise the yellow lift.

Stand to the left of the gray blocks and fling Koops at the red switch to rotate the staircase below. Climb the stairs to the narrow ledge at the top, then use another Shell Toss to nab the Castle Key. Hit the red switch again to return the stairs to their original position, then head back up and unlock the door.

5 PRISON BREAK

Use Koops's hold ability near the red switch at point 5, then run around to the other side of the fence and stand next to the last cell on the right. Release Koops, and as soon as he hits the switch, step inside the cell and through the doorway to your right.

You'll hear a voice coming from the black treasure chest in the next room. The voice asks you to find the key to unlock the chest. That all sounds a bit too familiar to Mario, but the voice assures our hero that it won't put a curse on him.

6 FOOL ME TWICE

When you open the treasure chest that contains the Black Key, spikes will rise from the floor and the spike-covered ceiling will begin to lower. Fortunately, you'll have plenty of time to wind through the maze and make your way back to the door before you get skewered.

Of course, the voice inside the black treasure chest was lying. Like a demonic Richard Simmons, it will "curse" you with the ability to get skinny. Simply hold the R Button to turn Mario sideways.

9 BEHIND BARS

Head all the way back to where you found Koops's "dad" and get skinny to squeeze through the bars that aren't in a crisscross pattern. Your sleek physique will let you grab the Castle Key on the other side.

10 GOING UP

Proceed to point 10 and toss Koops at the green switch while you stand on the corresponding lift. When you reach the next floor, walk up the stairs and use the Castle Key to unlock the door.

7 DRAGON'S BANE

Return to the prison and use your newfound slenderness to slip through the bars and grab the Attack FXR badge in the far-left cell. If you equip the badge (it doesn't cost any Badge Points), Mario will sound like a cricket when he attacks. It's every bit as intimidating as it sounds.

11 BROKEN HALLWAY

You can activate the first blue switch yourself to fill in the first gap in the hallway, but you'll need Koops's Shell Toss ability to hit the second switch. Once you fill in that second gap, jump out the adjacent window. Head right to pick up a Star Piece, then proceed left to get past the third and final gap.

8 REACH FOR THE STARS

Go back to point 4 and hit the yellow switch to lower the corresponding lift, then hold Koops to the left of the switch. Stand on top of the lift and release Koops. The lift will carry you to a narrow ledge overhead, where you'll find a Star Piece to your left. Repeat the process with the purple lift to reach another Star Piece through the door on the right.

12 LL COOL M

Hold Koops next to the green switch and ride the lift to the walkway overhead. Through the door to your left, you'll run into a thief named Miss Mowz. Like most women, she's instantly stricken with Mario's full, luscious mustache. After hitting on him for a bit, she'll leave you to plunder the room's treasure.

13 ON THE EDGE

Hit the yellow switch at point 13 to lower the lift, then use Koops's Hold ability to raise the lift again while you're standing on it. Walk out onto the edge of the railing and slip through the bars onto the paper-airplane panel to your left.

To reach the ledge in front of the door, nudge the Control Stick to the left occasionally during your flight. Before you take off, though, carefully step out onto the far edge of the railing and head right to pick up a Star Piece.

14 THE FINAL ASCENT

Go down the stairs and hit the yellow switch to lower the lift in front of you. Retrieve the Castle Key with Koops's Shell Toss, then drop through the opening if you want to grab the Last Stand P badge (it reduces the damage your ally receives by half when he or she is in peril).

When you're ready to fight Hooktail, continue your ascent to the top of the castle. The dragon is on the other side of the purple door, so spend the 10 coins to replenish your health if it's running low, and save your game. Also, make sure you have the Attack FX R badge equipped.

BOSS HOOKTAIL

HP	ATTACK	DEFENSE
20	5	1

Hooktail's attacks do a tremendous amount of damage, and his hide is nearly impervious until you nauseate him with the sound of crickets (see the caption). Once you've depleted all of his HP, the boss will offer you a variety of rewards in exchange for your forgiveness. Always answer no—the devious dragon is only trying to lure you in close for an attack. When he's finished begging, he'll go into the crowd and eat members of the audience to replenish half his health! Stomp on his nose to make him regurgitate your adoring fans, and slay the foul beast for good.

Hooktail claims to have gotten food poisoning from eating crickets once, so the mere sound of the insects makes him sick to his stomach. If you have the Attack FX R badge equipped when you attack him, you'll lower both his Attack and Defense stats.

PEACH'S EVENT

At the end of each chapter, you'll play through two additional events—one as Princess Peach and one as Bowser. After Peach's cut scene, enter the door to your left and take a shower. When you return to the previous room, the door on the right will open automatically. Proceed right until you come to the lab's mainframe, named TEC-XX.

BOWSER'S EVENT

All you have to do in Bowser's stage is head to the rear of the hall. On your way there, take the time to talk to his minions to trigger some hilarious dialogue. When Kammy asks if you like Friedeggs, we recommend answering in the affirmative (they are delicious, after all).

1 THE SHADOW SIRENS

You'll run into the Shadow Sirens at the beginning of Boggly Woods, but since they lost the sketch of Mario and hence don't know what he looks like, they won't pay you much attention. Simply walk on by for now (they won't attack if you talk to them, but they don't have anything terribly interesting to say).

4 THE MISSING NECKLACE

Approach Madame Flurrie's bedroom door. When Puro asks her for help, she'll say she'd do anything for him, but that she can't leave without her favorite necklace. As you may remember, the Shadow Sirens found a necklace lying in the forest. Go back and confront them about it.

2 THE TREE IS CLOSED

Follow Puro into the warp pipe and approach the Great Tree. Someone has installed a door at the bottom of the tree that prevents you from entering. Puro informs you that there's supposedly a secret entrance, but you'll need help from a woman named Madame Flurrie to find it.

5 TWISTED SISTERS

The Shadow Sirens are quite a bit tougher than any of the foes you've faced thus far. Start off with attacks that hit all three sisters, then focus on Manilyn when you run out of FP (she's a big gal, so her attacks do the most damage). Beldam can shrink you and your partner (reducing your AP) and enlarge her sisters (increasing their AP), so make her your second target. After you defeat the entire trio, they'll run away and drop Flurrie's necklace.

3 UNDER AND OVER

Go back through the warp pipe and proceed through the forest until you come to a black hill. Walk into the rear side of the hill, then push Up on the Control Stick and exit onto the row of tree stumps in the background. Follow them left (jump while you're standing on the seventh stump from the right) to reveal the P-Down, D-Up P badge! and bash the blue switch at the end to raise the paper-airplane panel. You can get to the panel via the nearby warp pipe. Use Koops's Shell Toss to nudge the Stone Sprite up there, then turn around and fly to the top of the aforementioned black hill.

6 SECRET ENTRANCE

Head back to Madame Flurrie's house and leave her necklace by the door. The grateful woman will come out and show her appreciation in a somewhat questionable manner before joining your party. Once you get over her vaguely disturbing bounciness, return to the Great Tree and use her wind power from the top of the root to uncover the secret entrance.

1 WELCOMING COMMITTEE

A pair of X-Nauts will attack you as soon as you enter the Great Tree. After you defeat them, a small group of Puries will come out of hiding (after getting over their initial fear of being eaten by the rotund Mario) and inform you that the rest of their kind has been imprisoned. They'll express doubts that a "hairy old man" can be of much help, so you'll have to prove your worth.

2 PUNI PRISONERS

Make your way to the prison cells at point 2 and talk to the Puri Elder in the blue cell. As he tries to recollect where the rest of the Puries are, Puni's younger sister will call you from the adjacent cell and ask you to find the key.

3 LOVE TRIANGLE

Enter the room to the left of the prison cells. You'll run into Ms. Mowz, whose affection for our handsome hero makes Madame Flurrie a bit jealous. The stricken thief will give you a clue as to the whereabouts of the Crystal Star and take her leave of you. The X-Naut that she knocked out will then wake up and accuse you of striking him from behind. Show him that you don't appreciate such ignoble accusations, and pick up the Red Key.

4 FREE THE ELDER

Use the key to unlock the elder's cell. When he's finished lecturing you, return to the group of Puries near the entrance. The elder will convince them to help you, and he'll give Mario the Puni Orb. To retrieve the Crystal Star, you must use the orb to gather the entire Puni tribe to your side. If you lose any Puries, return to the elder to get them back.

5 HIDDEN PIPE

Lead the Puries back through the warp pipe and place the Puni Orb on the black pedestal at point 5. Another warp pipe will appear next to the pedestal. Pick up the orb and head down the newly revealed pipe.

6 BLOWING BUBBLES

Set the Puni Orb in the left pedestal, then blow the Puries off the ledge with Flurrie's Gale Force. Each of the little fellas will rise back up in a bubble. Use Flurrie's powerful lungs again to blow them onto the opposite ledge, then grab the Puni Orb, jump across and lead your diminutive followers through the warp pipe on the right.

7 HARD-TO-REACH BADGE

To acquire the Damage P badge, face the red ? Block and execute a Shell Toss, then jump on the Coin Block that appears and hit the ? Block from underneath. The badge will probably fall to the floor, so you'll have to drop down after it.

8 BLOW DOWN THE DOOR

At the bottom of the room, use Flurrie's Gale Force on the left wall to expose the entrance to Pungent's shop. Inside you'll find a Jabbi hiding behind the stump at the far end; it will join your party if you talk to it. You can also purchase items, of course (see the shop listing on page 38), and replenish your health for eight coins.

9 PUNIES VS. JABBIES

A battle between your Punies and a squadron of Jabbies will commence when you walk into the room at point 9. As much as you may want to crush the little bugs beneath your steel-toed boots, you won't be able to participate in the fight. Just be sure to lead all 11 Punies into the room to give them the numerical advantage.

13 LUCKY CHARMS

Hit the black block and note the symbols on the four columns in the room. Make your way back to the room where you found the Blue Key, and bash the white blocks to align the symbols there in the same order: sun, moon, Puni, star. Walk through the hidden entrance that's revealed, and open the treasure chest to put on a pair of Super Boots.

10 101 PUNIES

After they vanquish their foes, the Punies will destroy the Jabbi hive, creating an entrance to the next room. Open the treasure chest to acquire the Blue Key, then go back to the blue cell and liberate the rest of the Punies.

14 THE GREAT ESCAPE

Use your new Spin Jump to smash through the wooden panel at point 10, and collect the Charge badge and the Shine Sprite from the room below. Afterward, return to the cell where your friends are being held, and smash through the wooden panel inside. Head back up and place the Puni Orb in the black pedestal, then use Furrina's Gale Force to blow the Punies down the hole.

11 THE BATTLE OF THE GREAT TREE

Do your best Diner impression and lead all 101 Punies to the room at point 11. There an epic battle will take place for control of the Great Tree. Like before, you can lead your forces into combat, but you can only spectate as the war unfolds.

15 ON THE STUMP

Drive your rear end through the wooden panel at point 15, then insert the Puni Orb in the nearby pedestal and blow the Punies down the hole with Furrina's mighty wind. Drop into the hole after your wee buddies and lead them into the warp pipe on top of the tree stump.

12 IT'S A TRAP!

Go through the hole in the wall that the Punies create after they emerge victorious, then head down the warp pipe and through the door to the right. If you place the Puni Orb in the black pedestal, a cell will close around your party, but a hidden warp pipe will appear as well. Grab the orb, then get skinny to escape from the prison, and jump down the pipe.

16 ACROSS THE POND

Jump across the pillars at point 16, then enter the warp pipe that leads back up to the water-filled room. Stand on the blue panel and hold Koops to your left, then step off the panel and release your partner to activate the blue 1 Block and drain the water into the room below. Hop down there and load the Pories across the lily pads then into the warp pipe to the next area.

17 THE FINAL COUNTDOWN

If you place the Puni Orb on the pedestal at point 17 and have all 101 Pories with you, a Crystal Star will emerge from one of the vases. Before you can pick it up, however, Lord Crump will run into the room and swipe it from you. Give chase and rush back to the tree's entrance before the time bomb explodes.

BOSS: MAGNUS VON GRAPPLE

HP	ATTACK	DEFENSE
30	2	1

When you finally catch up to Lord Crump, he'll hop inside a giant robot called Magnus von Grapple. You can either strike the robot's head with jumping attacks or its feet with ground attacks (neither body part is more vulnerable than the other). After a few rounds of combat, Magnus will detach both of its fists. They're capable of dealing much more damage than Magnus itself, so take them out as quickly as possible. The fists will regenerate in a few turns, but you can chip away at the mech's body in the meantime.

If you don't destroy the X-Fists immediately, you may not last long against Crump's technological monstrosity. Fortunately, each fist has only 2 HP, so you should be able to scrap both of them in a single turn. You can then chip away at the robot's body until the fists regenerate.

PEACH'S EVENT

Until some enlightened game developer sees fit to give us a full-blown ballroom-dancing simulator, Peach's next mini-stage is as close as we're going to get. TEC will ask Peach to dance with a holographic image of herself. Press the buttons as they appear onscreen to demonstrate the style and grace befitting of a princess. (Before you proceed to TEC's room, take a shower to hear Peach hum a different tune.)

BOWSER'S EVENT

Bowser doesn't care much for grace, and (as far as we know) he doesn't do a lot of ballroom dancing. In the Koopa King's second ministage, which hilariously parodies the first level in Super Mario Bros., and is quite possibly the greatest thing in the history of gaming, you're simply expected to smash everything in sight. To aid your cause, pick up pieces of meat until Bowser grows to fill the entire screen.

1 SHINE GET!

When you first arrive in Glitzville, you can get your hands on quite a few Star Pieces (see the map), as well as a Shine Sprite. To reach the latter, hit the space below it with your hammer, then stand on the coin block that appears.

2 THE RAWK SAYS

Enter the double doors in the battle arena to witness Rawk Hawk dropp-kicking his opponent. After some post-match trash-talking, Rawk will hold up his championship belt, which your partner notices contains a Crystal Star. To take the belt from the champ, you're going to have to fight your way to the top.

3 THE GREAT GONZALES

Head to Grubba's office at point 3 and have a chat with the promoter. After a brief tour of the arena, you'll sign a contract and Grubba will give you your fighting moniker. His assistant, Jalene, will then take you to the minor-league locker room and explain the rules to you.

4 EGG HUNT

If you leave the arena after you achieve rank 15 in the Glitz Pit, you'll see the owner of the hotdog stand trying to catch a runaway egg. Chase the egg until it hops on top of the stand, then climb to the roof of the juice shop, bounce from the spring and take off from the paper-airplane panel. Glide to the top of the hotdog stand and agree to help the egg, then let it follow you.

5 ENTER THE YOSHI

None of your attacks will do any good against the 10th-ranked Iron Clefts, so you'll have no choice but to swallow your pride and run away. When you get back to the locker room, you'll find that a Mini-Yoshi has hatched from the egg. The feisty little dinosaur will ask you to name him, then he'll join your party. Use his Gulp ability to exact a little revenge on the Iron Clefts and earn a spot in the major-league locker room.

6 HAMMER TIME

Once you rise to rank eight, you'll receive an e-mail from someone called X; it instructs you to go to the watering hole. Visit the juice shop and talk to the proprietor to score a Super Hammer. Take your new mallet to the minor-league locker room and use the Spin Hammer technique to smash the big yellow blockade. Inside the next room, jump on top of the desk and ride Yoshi to the Quibus Paper on the bookshelf.

7 GRUDGE MATCH

After you defeat the seventh-ranked team, the Iron Clefts will immediately challenge you to a rematch. Use Yoshi's Gulp again to show them what happens when they mess with the Great Gonzales. At the conclusion of your match, you'll receive an anonymous e-mail warning you to mind your own business. Never one to respond kindly to threats, Mano will go on a rampage and hit everyone in the locker room with a steel folding chair. (Not really.)

8 JUST LIKE OLD TIMES

Once you've climbed to rank six, one of your adoring fans will leave you a piece of cake. Eat it to refill your HP, FP and Star Power completely, then register for your next match. After you put the boots to the Magikoopas, an old acquaintance will jump onstage and challenge you to a match. Hit him with every thing you've got to take him out as quickly as possible. His poisonous bite will gradually drain your HP.

11 GRUBBA'S COVER-UP

At the top of the stairs, stand on the wooden crates in the middle of the hall and ride Yoshi over the row of crates to your left. Wind up the Spin Hammer to pulverize the big yellow block on the other side, then use Yoshi to grab the HP Plus P badge before you drop through the hole in the floor. Head right and examine the tiny hole in the ventilation shaft to listen in on a conversation between Grubba and Jolene.

9 PHONE BOOTH

When you return to the locker room after defeating the fourth-ranked fighters, you'll receive an e-mail from X that enjoins you to go to the telephone booth on the pavilion. Do as it says to pick up the Storage Key.

12 DON'T LET THEM EAT CAKE

After you beat the number-three team, don't eat the piece of cake that Jolene brings when you register for your next fight. If you don't resist it, your partner won't be able to participate in the match.

13 BARE WALLS

Fight your way to the number-one spot in the rankings. You'll receive yet another e-mail from X, this one telling you to take down the Great Genzales posters in the lobby. As immoral as it may be to deprive the fans of Mano's glorious visage, you'll need the Storage Key hidden behind the poster to the left of the upstairs door to proceed.

10 SUPER SMASH BROTHER

Use your newly acquired key to unlock the storage room (marked C on the map). Inside, have Flurrie blow on the crates to your right, then smash through the exposed yellow blocks with your hammer and hit the blue switch to make a staircase appear. (There's a Charge P badge underneath the crates on the right.)

14 "RETIRED" FIGHTERS

Head to the second floor of the storage room and unlock the door on the right. Use Yoshi to get past the row of crates inside, then bash the big yellow block behind them with your Spin Hammer. You'll find two of your fellow fighters lying injured on the floor.

15 TOILET PAPER

When you register for the championship match versus Rawk Hawk, the security guard will take you to the locker room at point 15 instead of to the ring. Use Flurrie to peel away the Princess Peach poster in the lower right-hand corner, then open the locker in the next room to emerge in an unfamiliar (but much cleaner!) locker room. Go into the bathroom and flush yourself down the toilet to return to the main major-league locker room, then head to the arena for your showdown with the champ.

16 LAYETH THE SMACKETH DOWN

After you deliver a bit of a beating to the Rawk, he'll hang from the rafters and start dropping various objects on your head. Most of your attacks won't be able to reach him, so knock him down with either Mario's Quake Hammer or Flurrie's Body Slam.

17 NEVER TRUST THE PROMOTER

If you beat Rawk Hawk, Jolene will lead you to your new digs: the swanky champion's quarters. When you're finished admiring the life-sized Mario poster hanging above the bed, jump on the stack of presents in the upper left-hand corner and ride Yoshi to the doorframe, then onto the dresser. Use the Spin Hammer to knock out the vent, then walk through the air duct and listen to the voice coming from the other side. Bash the vent in front of you to gain entry to Grubba's office. When you open his desk drawer, the promoter will walk in on you. Chase him to the arena and get ready for your next boss encounter.

BOSS: MACHO GRUBBA

60	4	0

At the beginning of the fight, Macho Grubba will gain the ability to act twice per turn. He'll use the additional action to increase one of his stats—Attack, Defense or Evade—before unleashing his offense (some of his strikes are capable of hitting both you and your partner, so heal accordingly). Each boost lasts only a single round, however, and the boss must renew his double-action capability every three rounds. Be sure to save some of your heavy artillery for the second half of the match, when Macho Grubba further increases his girth.

Take Grubba's current statistical bonus into account when determining the best course of action. Your attacks won't do much damage when Grubba elevates his defense, for example, so spend the turn charging, then hit him with a juiced-up Power Bounce the following turn.

PEACH'S EVENT

During your next rendezvous, TEC will ask you to speak with Sir Grodus. Take the elevator to the top floor and enter the green-lit door to your right. Check the lockers for an X-Naut uniform, then go behind one of the curtains to put it on. You'll find Sir Grodus through the door at the east end of the hall. After your conversation, change back into your dress and return to TEC's room.

BOWSER'S EVENT

The poor little Punnies just can't find a moment's peace. As if our pudgy hero didn't frighten them enough, Bowser shows up and nearly gives the entire tribe a coronary. Search the far-right bush to talk to the elder. (You can search the rest of the bushes to terrify the Punnies hiding behind them. It's not necessary, but it is funny.)

COOKBOOK

To reach this hidden room of wonders, roll yourself into a tube and enter the small opening near the west end of the hall.

1 DOUR INDEED

Upon your arrival in Twilight Town, Mayor Dour will invite you to his home and explain the village's situation to you. Afterward, head to the gate at the east end of town. Along the way, you can pick up three Star Pieces (see the map) and listen to the people's sorrows, though the latter isn't nearly as rewarding as the former.

3 KEYS AND SHROOMS

You'll find a Black Key inside the shack at the beginning of the Twilight Trail. Farther down the path, you can jump while standing on the yellow coin block to discover a hidden Super Shroom. The enemies in the area are capable of doing a lot of damage, so you'll need all the health-replenishing items you can get your hands on.

2 FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS

The gatekeeper won't let you leave town without permission from the mayor. On your way back to the mayor's house, you'll hear the bell ring, and wouldn't you know it—it's the mayor that turns into a pig. Fortunately, the bell will ring again if you head back to the gate, turning the gatekeeper into a pig and allowing you to leave.

4 KEY RETRIEVAL

If you continue down the Twilight Trail, you'll eventually come to a tall tree that blocks your path. You can't get past it yet, but you can use Koops's Shell Toss to nab the Shop Key behind it.

5 TOTALLY TUBULAR

Return to the village and talk to the owner of the item shop. She'll let you have whatever's in the storage room as long as you promise to help her husband. Use the Shop Key to gain entry to the room. Inside, you'll find a number of useful items, as well as a big black treasure chest. Unlock the chest with the Black Key to be "cursed" with another paper ability.

9 STAR STATUE

Inside Creepy Steeple (check out those stained-glass windows!), you'll find a statue of the Crystal Star near the east end of the main hall. Push the statue to fall down the hole underneath it.

6 UNDER THE TREE AND INTO THE WOODS

Head back out onto the trail and use your new ability to roll under the fallen tree. A little farther along the path, you'll come across a pile of straw. Blow it away with Madame Flurrie to reveal a warp pipe that leads into the background. Go down the pipe, then head left into the forest. When you come to another tree that blocks your path, use Flurrie to blow a hole in it.

10 BOO!

Open the box at point 10 to release a huge flock (juggle? murder?) of Boos. When you're asked how many of them came out, answer "200" to receive an Ultra Shroom and a funny insult. Afterward, jump from the spring in the previous room to return to the main hallway. Talk to the Boo there and assure the little guy that you won't be mean.

7 ROCK 'N' HOLE

Flurrie's powerful lungs come in handy yet again. Just before you reach the large rock at point 7, you'll see a dark spot on the ground. Aim Flurrie's breath at it to reveal some wooden boards. Use your Spin Jump to smash through them, then push the rock in the background to move the one in the foreground; you'll reveal a hole in the process. Jump into the hole to get past the rock.

11 GHOSTBUSTERS

If you stand still in the hallway for too long, the Boos will eventually try pick you up and eject you from the steeple. You can use the Spin Hammer to ward them off, but if you do so twice, they'll get mad and combine to form a giant Atomic Boo. Though upsetting the ghosts in such a manner is completely optional, defeating the Atomic Boo will net you a Lucky Start badge.

8 HOLEY GATE

The gate to Creepy Steeple is locked tight, and not even Flurrie's mighty wind can blow it down. To get through, you'll have to roll yourself into a tube and take advantage of the small hole to your right.

12 STEEPLE KEY

Head through the door in the foreground and bash the red Switch at the far end of the veranda. Enter the nearby door and head upstairs. The door at the top leads to the second floor of the main hallway. Use Koops or Yoshi to nab the Steeple Key at the end of the walkway.

13 MOVING THE STAIRS

Return to the room where the stairs are and enter the door you haven't been through yet. You'll see another red Switch to your right. Hit it twice with your hammer, then climb the newly moved stairs and follow the walkway to a locked door. Use the Steeple Key to open it.

BOSS: ??????

40	4	0

At the top of the steeple, you'll meet the villain responsible for transforming Twilight Town's residents into swine. The unnamed boss starts with only one easily defended attack, but once you've depleted half its Heart Points, the bow-tied baddie will turn into a shadow form of Mario, capable of mimicking your jump and hammer attacks. Nevertheless, the mysterious foe shouldn't give you too much trouble.

14 SHADOW MARIO

The chapter will appear to end after you defeat the boss, but you'll be left in control of the fallen shadow Mario. Get up and head back to Twilight Town. You won't have any of your partners with you, so you'll have to be extra careful.

16 A NEW FRIEND

If you talk to Vivian on the west side of town, she'll tell you that she's looking for something very important. Search the far-left bush to find the Superbombomb, then give the explosive to Vivian. To repay your act of kindness, the Shadow Siren will join your party.

15 MARIO VS. MARIO?

Just before you get to Twilight Town, the "real" Mario will confront you and ask you to guess his name. You won't be able to enter the correct name even if we told you, so the not-so-heroic plumber will engage you in battle. Despite his insistence to the contrary, you have no choice but to run away.

17 SOMETHING TO CROW ABOUT

With Vivian's ability to pull you into the shadows (press the X Button), you can listen in on the conversations between the crows perched throughout town. Eavesdrop on the birds closest to the gate to obtain some useful information. If you tell the kid nearby that you read strategy guides, pay absolutely no heed to his response.

18 ALTERNATE ENTRANCE

As you leave town, "Mano" will ambush you again. You still won't know his name, so input whatever moniker tickles your fancy, then flee from the ensuing battle and make your way back to Creepy Steeple. Instead of entering through the front door, fall down the well in front of the gate.

19 UNDER THE DOOR

Once you've dealt with the seemingly endless supply of Buzzy Beetles and Spike Tops, push the door-shaped barrier to the top of the incline, then use Vivian's ability to pull yourself into the ground. The barrier will pass over you as it slides back downhill, allowing you to reach the door to your right.

20 THE PARROT SPILLS THE BEANS

Inside the room at point 20, you'll find two things that will help you win back your identity. The first is the Letter "P," which you'll find inside the green box, and the second is a chatty parrot. Use Vivian's ability while standing next to the bird to learn your tormentor's name.

21 WHAT'S IN A NAME

Make the long hike back to Twilight Town for another face-off with your doppelganger. If you enter his name correctly (Doopliss), he'll take off toward the steeple. Give chase and follow him all the way back to the top of the building.

BOSS: DOOPLISS

40	4	0

Doopliss will convince all of your partners who aren't named Vivian to fight alongside him, while the Shadow Siren takes her sweet time deciding whether she should help you (she will eventually join you). Focus all of your offense on your look-alike—if you knock out one of your partners, someone else will jump in to take his or her place (plus, beating up on your naive friends will make you feel kind of guilty). Doopliss has a lot of Heart Points, and you won't be used to guarding against your own attacks, so it's a good idea to use the Power Lift to boost your ATK and DEF.

Your friends may have fallen for Doopliss's clever ruse, but they don't deserve to get stomped. Well, maybe they do, but each successive partner packs a wallop a bit meaner than the last. Plus, they'll stop attacking you if you simply defeat Doopliss and reclaim your identity.

PEACH'S EVENT

Answer TEC's questions as follows:

- 1) Thousand-Year Door opens.
- 2) To conquer the world.
- 3) A 1,000-year-old demon's soul.
- 4) Bring the demon back to life.
- 5) Crystal Stars.

BOWSER'S EVENT

Bowser's vehicle will malfunction while he's flying over the ocean, which leads to an underwater stage inspired by the original Super Mario Bros. There's no real strategy for the level, so we'll just recommend snaking in those sweet tunes as you reduce everything in your path to rubble.

CHAPTER 5

THE KEY TO PIRATES

THE LOVE OF THE SEA

YOUR NEXT DESTINATION IS KEELHAUL KEY. HEAD TO THE ROGUE-PORT INN AND TALK TO FLAVIO. NO MATTER HOW YOU ANSWER HIS QUESTION, HE'LL OFFER TO TAKE YOU TO THE KEY. CHAT WITH HIM AGAIN AT THE HARBOR, THEN HEAD TO THE EAST SIDE OF TOWN AND CROSS THE RIVER WITH YOSHI SO YOU LAND SOUTH OF THE FENCE. CLIMB THE CRATES, RIDE YOSHI ONTO THE ROOFTOPS TO YOUR LEFT, AND ROLL DOWN THE CHIMNEY. AFTER YOU SPEAK TO THE OLD BOB-OMB INSIDE, HEAD BACK TO THE INN AND CHAT WITH PODLEY. IF YOU REVIST THE OLD BOB-OMB, HE'LL ADMIT TO BEING ADMIRAL BOBBERY. ASK PODLEY TO TELL YOU BOBBERY'S STORY, THEN DELIVER THE OLD LETTER THAT HE GIVES YOU TO THE ADMIRAL. AFTER HE READS THE LETTER, BOBBERY WILL FINALLY AGREE TO JOIN YOU.

Now that I am thinking of it, I once heard of the treasure of Gomez, the pirate king.

Drop the act, Super Stacker! We already found out that you're Admiral Bobbery!

My men have already loaded our cargo and supplies. Yes! Preparations are complete!

1 CASTAWAYS

Your voyage won't quite go according to plan, but you'll arrive at your destination nonetheless. The crew will set up a makeshift village east of the shoreline, where you'll find both an item shop and an inn. Be prepared to battle three Embers the first time you head over there.

2 ISLAND EXPLORATION

Your crew has no desire to become the next Swiss Family Robinson, so they'll nominate you to find a way off the island. Head east, and when you reach the ? Block at point 2, stand on it and jump to reveal a Coin Block. It will fill in the gap between the ledges enough for you to get across with Yoshi.

3 THE ADMIRAL'S COURAGE

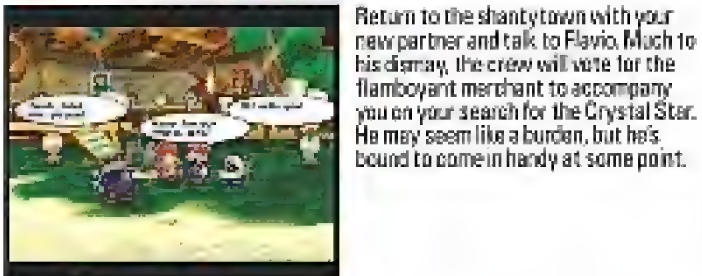

You'll find your missing crew members on the bridge at point 3. After you're forced to run away, head back across the bridge and into the next area. Defeat the Embers that are circling the tree, then hit the big palm with your hammer to bring down Admiral Bobbery.

4 LAST REQUEST

On your way back to camp, grab a coconut from the tree in the background behind the bridge. You'll have to give the fruit to Flavio in exchange for the bottle of Chuckola Cola that he found. Take the soda back to Bobbery, then bank him with your hammer to wake him up. The confused admiral will join your party.

5 RELUCTANT COMPANION

Return to the shantytown with your new partner and talk to Flavio. Much to his dismay, the crew will vote for the flamboyant merchant to accompany you on your search for the Crystal Star. He may seem like a burden, but he's bound to come in handy at some point.

6 FLAVIO'S INSPIRING LYRICS

Talk to Flavio after you examine the skull rock, and when he's done singing, ask him to give you the Skull Gem. Place the gem in the rock to activate the mustache stones. Flavio's song provides clues as to what you should do next. Perform three Spin Jumps on top of the red stone, smack the blue stone four times with your hammer, then toss Bobbery into the hole to blast open an entrance.

1 DON'T GET SKEWERED

The first obstacle you'll come to in the grotto is a collection of spears that jut up from the ground periodically. You can get past them in one of two ways: use Vivian's ability to pull yourself down just before the spears emerge, or turn sideways while you're standing between the rows.

2 INCOMING FIRE

A pair of Blaster Blasters will fire Bullet Bills at you from the east end of the bridge. As you make your way across, either fight the Bullet Bills or use Vivian's ability to avoid them. The latter isn't an option against the Blasters—you'll have to take 'em out to continue.

3 BOMBERMAN

Ascend the cliff at point 3 and toss Bobbery onto the ledge at the top. When the good admiral goes "boom," he'll activate the blue Switch and open the metal door to your left. For a naval officer of such renown, Bobbery is surprisingly amenable to blowing himself up at Mario's whim. Perhaps they've bonded through their similar impressive mustaches.

4 KOOPS PROVIDES A LIFT

Hop onto the crate that's floating in the water and hold Koops to the left, then release your partner to activate the red! Switch while you stand on the nearby platform. When the platform rises, jump on the plank to your right and pick up the Grotto Key. (To reach the Shine Sprite in the room, jump on top of the crate that serves as a counterweight for the platform.)

5 BANK ROLL

Unlock the door at the bottom of the cliff and proceed deeper into the grotto. You'll soon come to a bank of spears that protrude from the wall. You can roll under most of them in tube form, but you'll have to wait for the lowest ones to recede back into the wall.

6 BRIDGES AND BARRICADES

When you reach the broken bridge at point 6, use either Koops or Admiral Bobbery to launch a first strike against the enemies on the other side of the gap. Only Bobbery's explosive personality (and) will get you past the wooden barricade that follows.

7 DODGE THE BULLETS

Be on your toes in the tunnel at point 7—two more pairs of Bill Blasters will fire at you from the far end. As before, you can use Vivian to avoid the projectiles. The Bullet Bills don't present much of a threat in battle, but the measly amount of experience points they give you doesn't make them worth your while.

8 NAUTICAL DISASTER

Talk to the big black treasure chest inside the shipwreck, then defeat the Ember to earn the Black Key. If you unlock the chest, it will "curse" you with the ability to fold yourself into a paper boat.

9 MAIDEN VOYAGE

Return to the boat panel at point 9 and test the seaworthiness of your new vessel by steering it over the edge of the waterfall. When you hit the bottom, sail west through the archway marked A on the map.

10 BY LAND AND BY SEA

Continue west and dock the good ship Marion on the boat panel at point 10. Grab the Gate Handle from the broken-off bow to your left, then leap onto the adjacent platform and head back the way you came—this time on foot.

11 OPEN THE FLOODGATE

Ride Yoshi across the stream at the bottom of the waterfall, then use your newly acquired Gate Handle to turn the chain spool and raise the floodgate. Drop from the top of the waterfall again in boat form and float under the gate to the next area.

12 ROUGH WATERS

As you continue to sail east, you'll run into some pretty harrowing surf. Navigate around the waves, or they'll overturn your wee vessel and carry you back to point 12.

13 SHIPWRECKED TOADS

Disembark on the boat panel and jump down the adjacent warp pipe. When you emerge in the background, head left and travel through the pipe at the very end. From the paper-airplane panel, you can fly to the other two pipes in the foreground. Use them to get to the blue Switches in the background. Once you've activated both switches, the Toads can escape.

BOSS: CORTEZ

HP 20 ATTACK 4 DEFENSE 1

Cortez has three forms. With each one, you can target either his head or the bone pile beneath his torso—both have the same DEF. His first incarnation will try to skewer you—either with all four weapons simultaneously, or with one at a time. His second form will boost his ATK, then throw bones at both you and your partner to inflict heavy damage. When he opens his rib cage, hit the exposed green gem with everything you've got. His third form attacks five times (four weapons plus his head) per turn, and when you're about to finish him off, he'll devour the souls of your audience to replenish some of his HP.

Draw around the enemy as many times as you can!

If you destroy one of Cortez's weapons in his third incarnation, it will simply reappear after two turns. You can, however, use Flurrie's Gale Force for some other attack that deals a decent amount of damage to every enemy onscreen to blow away all four weapons at once.

14 ESCAPE THE GROTTTO

After you defeat the ghost pirate (or is he a pirate ghost?), return to the stranded Toads and use Admiral Bobbery to blow a hole in the wall. If you follow the Toads through the hole, you'll emerge on the shore west of the shantytown in Keelhaul Key.

15 GHOST SHIP

Lead Flavio back to Cortez through the hole you just made. The arrogant entrepreneur may be a bit annoying at times, but when push comes to shove, he shows the true worth of his character. When he's finished negotiating with Cortez, return to the ship's deck.

16 NAVAL BATTLE

Focus all of your attacks on Lord Crump—if you knock out the X-Nauts, more will simply jump in to take their place. When you reduce Crump's HP to zero, he'll go backstage to heal and recruit more help. The X-Nauts will begin dealing major damage to both you and your partner. Finish off their leader as quickly as possible to put an end to the skirmish.

BOWSER'S EVENT

Once again, there's not much strategy involved in Bowser's ministage. All you have to do is talk to Crump to initiate a face-off between the X-Nauts and the Koopa clan. Your adversaries battle about as competently as you'd expect based on the prior success rate of the opposing generals.

INN

No more looking for invisible blocks—you can reach this Shine Sprite with a simple Spring Jump.

POSHLEY SANCTUM*LEMBLEM*CRYSTAL STAR*1 WELCOME ABOARD

At the beginning of the chapter, you'll find a threatening letter in your cabin. (There's also a Shine Sprite behind the table and a Dried Shroom inside the nightstand.) Walk to the west end of the train and show the letter to the conductor.

3 USUAL SUSPECT

Follow the stains to cabin 003. The rotund occupant will be none too pleased that you're accusing him of stealing the stew, but you'll find the Galley Pot in his nightstand. Return the pot to the chef. The relieved Cheep Cheep will give you a Star Piece to show his gratitude.

2 DINNER MYSTERY

As you head back to your room, you'll see a number of passengers gathering in the kitchen area. If you talk to Pennington (he's the penguin holding the magnifying glass), he'll explain that someone has stolen a pot of stew. Talk to him again—he'll ask you to find the pot to prove your innocence), then examine the stains on the floor.

4 DETECTIVE WORK

Visit Pennington in cabin 006. The "penguin with the improbably large brain" will decide to make you his new assistant, and instruct you to check out the Bob-omb family staying in cabin 008. Unfortunately, you won't get one of those stylin' tweed detective caps to go along with your new job.

5 BIRTHDAY PRESENT

If you try to talk to Bub's parents, they'll just continue to argue over what to get their son for his birthday. The tiny Bob-omb will tell you that if you bring him what he really wants, he'll give you something in return. Talk to him two more times for a couple of clues, then speak with the conductor to find out that Bub dreams of being a train engineer someday.

6 AUTOGRAPH HOUND

Head to the engine room and speak with the train's engineer. The friendly chap will gladly give you an autograph for little Bub. Take the gift back to the birthday Bob-omb to collect your reward (a Shine Sprite), then check in with Pennington for your next assignment.

7 MISSING BLANKET

The conductor will inform you that while he was passing out blankets to the passengers, he came up one short. Since he always keeps enough blankets on hand for the number of tickets sold, he deduces that there must be an unticketed passenger on board. Agree to help him find the culprit.

8 GHOST RIDER

Enter cabin 004 and use Vivian's ability to pull yourself into the shadows. (The ethics of sneaking into someone's room and hiding are irrelevant when there's a blanket thief running amok.) The ghost that appears will agree to give you the missing blanket if you find his diary for him.

9 DEAR DIARY

When you apprise the conductor of the situation, he'll step aside and allow you to enter the baggage car. Turn sideways and squeeze between the food crates inside to retrieve the ghost's Ragged Diary. Return the diary to its owner in exchange for the blanket, then give the blanket to the conductor. He'll reward you with a Mushroom.

10 UNSOLVED MYSTERIES

Both the waitress in the dining car and Toodles in cabin 002 will ask you to look for something if you talk to them. You won't be able to find either of their items on the first night, however, so head back to your room for some well-earned rest.

11 RISKY BUSINESS

Stop by Pennington's room at the beginning of day two to learn about your next case. It seems someone has stolen the Ratooney businessman's briefcase, which contains a powerful new syrup capable of raising the dead (eat your heart out, Mrs. Butterworth).

12 PAPER TRAIL

Enter cabin 001 and pick up the piece of paper on the floor. If you take it back to Pennington, the Patocey businessman will identify it as one of his contracts. Your next objective is to find the missing occupant of cabin 001.

16 STATION STAIRWAY

Inside the station, head through the door on the far right (not the elevator door), then roll under the latticework and hop the blue! Switch. Climb the stairs that unfold and enter the door at the top.

13 MARIO ALWAYS GETS HIS MAN

You'll find another piece of paper on the floor in your own room. If you use Vivian's ability to make yourself disappear, a Toad will eventually peek out from behind the seat. Emerge from the shadows and chase him around the room. When you finally catch the sneaky little thief, he'll cough up the Briefcase, Gold Ring and Shell Earrings. Shortly, the train will arrive at Riverside Station.

17 JUMP MAN

In the next room, you'll have to jump across four rotating gears (no Mario adventure would be complete without a little platforming). Each one pauses for a brief moment, so study the timing to avoid jumping too early or too late.

14 JEWELRY EXCHANGE

Before you detrain, return the Shell Earrings to the waitress in the dining car, and the Gold Ring to Toodles in cabin 002. The former will reward you with a Star Piece, the latter with 30 coins. Unfortunately, you can't just keep the jewelry yourself and try to pawn it at the nearest item shop.

18 GEARWORKS

Once you've leapt across, roll under the large cylinder then jump on the light-brown gear next to it. From there you can jump onto the opening in the cylinder that follows, then onto another gear. When the barrier in front of you rises, use Koops's Shell Toss to retrieve the Storage Key.

15 TRAIN DELAY

If you talk to the conductor in front of the train, he'll tell you that someone (guess who) needs to lower the drawbridge before you can depart for Postroy Heights. Use the key that he gives you to unlock the entrance to the station.

19 BEHIND THE FOLD

Go back downstairs and use the Storage Key to unlock the door on the right. When you come to what seems like a dead end at point 19, use Flurrie's ability to blow away the papers and uncover a hidden door.

20 ROLLIN', ROLLIN', ROLLIN'

Get tubular and roll through the tunnel as illustrated on the map below. Note that after you turn right at the first fork, you must jump to avoid falling down the wrong hole. (You'll also have to jump and take a bit of a detour to reach the P-Up, D-Down badge.)

23 SPRING IN YOUR STEP

Hop onto the boxes in the right-hand corner of the room and ride Yoshi across the gap to the top of the next set of boxes. Execute a Spring Jump to grab onto the pipe, then shimmy left. Do another Spring Jump underneath the platform to knock down the Elevator Key.

24 BACK ON TRACK

Head back to the beginning of the station and use your new key to ride the elevator. The room below is crawling with mysterious black creatures. If you use Flurrie to blow some of them away, the rest will scurry away to reveal a lever in the middle of the room. Pull the lever, then strike the blue Block that emerges to lower the drawbridge.

21 STUBBORN SWITCHES

If you defeat all of the Goombas in the room, the nearby blocks will open to reveal three blue switches. Each switch has a number on it that indicates how many times you have to hit it. Once you've activated all three, a staircase will unfold. Use Koops to nab the Shine Sprite near the top of the stairs.

25 MORNING OF DOOM

Once you're back aboard the Excess Express, hop in bed to replenish your health and advance to day three. The next morning, talk to the engineer to witness those dark critters from Riverside Station attacking the train. Who needs breakfast when you can wake up to a relentless horde of pure evil?

22 ULTRA BOOTS

Open the large treasure chest to procure the Ultra Boots. With the new footwear, you can perform a Spring Jump to leap much higher than you could before. Hold the A Button and rotate the Control Stick to fold yourself up, then release A to jump. Use your new move to grab onto the pipe overhead, then scoot past the boxes and slip through the grate.

26 SMORGS ABOARD

Run to the baggage car and have Flurrie blow away the creatures to save two members of the train's crew. Afterward, use your Spring Jump to grab onto the pipe, then follow the attackers through the hole to your left. You'll emerge outside—climb onto the roof and clear a path with your hammer as you make your way to the front of the train.

BOSS SMORG

HP	ATTACK	DEFENSE
50	5	1

As your confrontation with the Smorg commences, the boss's body will be virtually invulnerable. You can drop the monster's defense to zero, however, by defeating all three of its Smorg Miasmas. The tentacles will regenerate after two turns, but you can deal hefty damage to the body in the meantime (and it won't be able to fight back). Hit it with everything you've got, because when the Miasmas grow back a second time, they'll merge into a single hooklike tentacle with a much higher attack power. And don't worry about the passengers trapped in the Smorg's clutches—they'll be fine once you vanquish the beast.

You won't be able to reach the Miasmas with ground-based attacks, so bring a partner who's capable of jumping to defeat them as quickly as possible. That will be especially important with the hooklike tentacle, which is capable of dealing double-digit damage to both you and your partner.

27 POSHLEY HEIGHTS

Once you defeat the Smorg, you'll finally arrive at your destination. When you're finished soaking in its luxurious splendor (you'll even receive a dish prepared by Zess T. if you stay at the inn), head for the Poshley Sanctum and read the note posted on the door. Pennington will introduce himself as the sanctum's manager and let you in.

28 INSIDE THE SANCTUM

After the cut scene inside the sanctum, stand on the star marker and do a Spring Jump to grab onto the bar overhead. Shimmy onto the ledge to your right, then use the same method to climb the next two ledges and reach the paper-airplane panel. Fly to the other side of the room and hit the blue I Switch on the top ledge.

29 MARIO PAINT

If you head down the warp pipe that's revealed after you activate the blue I Switch, you'll appear in the painting on the back wall. Enter the door and weave through the Dark Boos in the next room to nab the Crystal Star. You can also navigate the overhead bars as you did in the previous area to get your hands on an L Emblem badge and a Shine Sprite.

PEACH'S EVENT

There's not much for you to do in Peach's final minisaga except walk to TEC's room and watch a surprisingly touching cut scene unfold. If you don't feel much animosity toward Sir Grodus at this point, you will by the time the event is over.

BOWSER'S EVENT

Fortunately, the always-lovable Bowser manages to lighten things up a bit with another heaping helping of wanton destruction. You'll play through a level that should look pretty familiar to the Koopa King, then you'll witness a hilarious confrontation between him and a certain championship fighter.

CHAPTER 7

MARIO SHOOTS THE MOON

TOOL UPGRADE

AFTER YOU LEARN THE LOCATION OF THE FINAL CRYSTAL STAR, PROFESSOR FRANKLY WILL ASK YOU TO COME BACK LATER. STAND UNDER THE WOODEN PLATFORM IN THE TOWN SQUARE AND PERFORM A SPRING JUMP TO KNOCK DOWN THE GIANT TREASURE CHEST. INSIDE IT YOU'LL FIND AN ULTRA HAMMER. WHEN YOU'RE READY TO MOVE ON, RETURN TO PROFESSOR FRANKLY'S THEN SLIP THROUGH THE METAL GRATE ON THE WEST SIDE OF TOWN. RIDE YOSHI TO THE LEDGE ON YOUR LEFT AND SMASH THE GRAY BLOCK IN FRONT OF THE WALL WITH YOUR NEW MALLET. THE BLUE WARP PIPE ON THE OTHER SIDE WILL TAKE YOU TO THE FAHR OUTPOST.

Ermmm... Looking into this may take a little time, so come back in a bit, all right?

FAHR OUTPOST

IT'S A GOOD THING MARIO DOESN'T RUN AROUND BUCK-NAKED LIKE MANY OTHER VIDEO GAME HEROES, BECAUSE IT GETS MIGHTY COLD AT THE FAHR OUTPOST.

1 DON'T BECOME A MARIO-SICLE

The enemies at Fahr Outpost can freeze you and knock you out before you thaw, but you can take steps to avoid a frosty demise. Number one is to equip the Chill Out badge to prevent your foes from striking first.

Use items and special attacks to take out multiple opponents at once, especially when you're facing Ice Puffs that possess Ice Storm items. They can use them to freeze both you and your partner simultaneously.

You can use either a Stop Watch or the Clock Out special ability to immobilize your enemies for a few turns. That should give you enough time to finish them off with regular attacks if you're running low on BP.

If one of your characters freezes, use the other one to run away. It may not be the most courageous act, but sometimes discretion is the better part of valor. Just watch out for the same enemy again after you escape.

2 CANNON QUEST

When you arrive at the outpost, speak to the mayor (you'll know him by his sweet 'stache) with Admiral Bobbery by your side. He'll instruct you to seek out Goldbob and General White if you wish to use the cannon.

Goldbob makes his residence in Poshley Heights. Rather than take the train, you can return there via a warp pipe in the area beneath Roguesport (refer to the map on page 23). You'll find Goldbob in front of the blue house on the west side of town. When he asks how much you're willing to pay to use the cannon, answer "Everything I have!" then answer "Yes" to all of his subsequent questions. He won't actually keep your coins, but he will give you the Goldbob Guide.

General White is a bit more difficult to track down. You may remember seeing him in Petalburg. Head there from the blue warp pipe beneath Roguesport (see page 23) and talk to the Keeper near the west entrance. He'll point you to Keehaul Key, so head to the shantytown and ask Pa-Patch for another clue.

Return to Roguesport and take the blimp to Gitzville. If you inquire with the juice-shop owner as to General White's whereabouts, he'll recall something about a big tree. That means the next stop on your whirlwind tour is Baggly Woods. The first Puff inside the Great Tree will tell you that White went somewhere dark.

Make your way back to Twilight Town and talk to the villager standing in front of the inn. It seems General White isn't there anymore (surprise!), so drag your dejected self back to Fahr Outpost. While you're reporting to the mayor that you haven't been able to find White, you'll see the general step out of the house in the background. Follow the elusive Bob-omb back inside and wake him up (you'll have to give it several tries).

3 SPACE RACE

Talk to the mayor again and follow him west. He'll lower you into the cannon and blast you to the moon. Considering most of the Bob-ombs speak with Russian accents, those of you who grew up in the '60s may feel a bit nervous when you see the enormous weapon rise from a silo. Resist the urge to hide under a desk and tuck your head between your legs.

THE MOON & X-NAUT-FORTRESS

AFTER SOMETHING OF A ROUGH LANDING, YOU'LL FIND YOURSELF ON THE MOON. THE REDUCED GRAVITY ON THE SURFACE ENABLES YOU TO JUMP HIGHER, BUT IT ALSO SLOWS YOU DOWN, MAKING IT MORE DIFFICULT TO EVADE ENEMIES.

To activate the crane, insert the Cog (see page 78) in the machine on the right, then press the red buttons in the following order: left, right, middle. Afterward, you can operate the crane from the nearby terminal. Hold A to move it left then B to move it toward the background.

Press the red button to activate the teleporter, which you can use to travel quickly to and from the area beneath Rogueport.

SLEEPY SHEEP

1 MOONWALKER

To reach the building in the background, blow up the cracked rock at point 1 and jump down the warp pipe. You can continue east first to retrieve the remaining items on the moon's surface, but they're not really worth it considering all the enemies you'll have to contend with.

2 WHY NAUT?

A pair of Elite X-Nauts will attack you when you walk through the door at the top of the escalator. You won't be able to flee from the battle, but they shouldn't give you much trouble. Afterward, you and your partner will deduce that you're inside the X-Naut Fortress.

3 FOLLOW THE LIGHT

When you enter the chamber at point 3, some of the floor panels will light up. Memorize the pattern and follow it to the treasure chest on the other side of the room (you'll be electrocuted if you step on one of the panels that didn't illuminate). You'll deactivate the security system when you take the Elevator Key, so if the lit panels didn't lead you beneath the ? Block, you can nab the Super Shroom from it on the way out.

4 LINE DRAWING

Insert the key in the elevator control panel and descend to sublevel 2. Head left and enter the door at the end of the hall. The panels on the floor won't illuminate, but the diagram below illustrates the path you should take (there's also a diagram posted in the background, but it's tough to make out). Inside the treasure chest you'll find a red Card Key.

5 OFFICE RAID

The door at the right end of the hall leads to Sir Grodus's quarters. Deal with the X-Yux inside as you see fit (it spawns two Mini-X-Yux at the end of each turn, so we recommend you try to avoid it), then enter Grodus's office and grab the green Card Key from his desk.

6 DIDN'T YOU GET THE MEMOS?

Two notes are posted in the locker room at point 6. The white one describes how to activate a switch (left, right, middle) and the pink one shows an access code (014029). That information will come in handy momentarily.

7 THE 66th ANNUAL QUIRK QUIZ

Take the elevator to sublevel 1 and input the aforementioned access code (014029) at the terminal to your right. Enter the room, talk to the metallic Thwomp and choose to "Challenge this chump!"

Answer five of the Thwomp's questions correctly (see below) to win the red Elevator Key. If you get three of the questions wrong for some reason (i.e., you can't read), you'll have to fight a pair of X-Yux for the key.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

1. What is hidden here?	ELEVATOR KEY
2. What's the name of the girl who's waiting for Koopa's return?	KOOPIE KOO
3. How many total feet do a Goomba, Lava Bubble, Buzzy Beetle and Boo have?	6
4. Where was the Diamond Star?	MOONTAIL'S BELLY
5. What was the name of the first Giltville arena champion?	PRINCE MUSH
6. What did Francesca and Frankie lose on Kooshul Key?	A RING
7. What number question is this?	NUMBER SEVEN

8 ELECTRIC BOOGALOO

Use your new key to take the elevator marked D on the map to sublevel 3. Enter the door at the left end of the hall and follow the illuminated floor panels to the treasure chest on the other side of the room. Unlike before, you must actually walk on the panels while they're lit to avoid being electrocuted. Your reward for making it across is a yellow Card Key.

9 SHOW YOUR CARDS

You'll find three Card Key terminals in the room at the other end of the hall. Swipe your cards in the following order, from left to right: red, yellow, green. When you've swiped all three, you can proceed through the door to the next area.

10 CONVEY YOURSELF

Throw Bobbery over the fence to activate the blue I Switch and turn on the conveyor belt. Slip through the bars in Paper mode to stand on the belt, then sink into the floor with Vivian to get past the barrier.

11 PIPE DOWN

Ride the lift at the end of the conveyor belt to the platform overhead, then hop onto another lift and jump down the tall warp pipe to your left. When you emerge in the background, jump across the lifts and rotating cogs to the super-tall warp pipe at point 11. (Before you jump onto the first set of cogs, you can ride the lifts to an Ultra Shroom. Refer to the map for its exact location.)

12 FLYING PLUMBER

Take off from the paper-airplane panel and fly to the platform where the blue Card Key is. Jump to the floor and replenish your health if needed, then save your game and head down the nearest warp pipe. Ride the lift at the end of the conveyor belt again and return to the background.

13 STAIRWAY TO THE X-NAUTS' DOOM

Make your way to the warp pipe at point 13 and jump down it to reemerge in the foreground. Step out onto the adjacent lift, then jump on the lift to your right and ride it to the blue I Switch beneath the paper-airplane panel.

When you hit the I Switch, a stairway leading to the boss's chamber will unfold. Insert the Card Key in the terminal at the top of the stairs to unlock the door. If the X-Nauts were counting on an elaborate system of platforms and warp pipes to stop Mario, they obviously hadn't gotten word of his travels with a certain tie-wearing ape.

BOSS: MAGNUS VON GRAPPLE 2.0

HP 70 ATTACK 6 DEFENSE 2

The Crystal Star-powered Magnus von Grapple 2.0 is quite a bit more powerful than the robot's previous incarnation. As before, the boss will detach both its fists after you've done a bit of damage. Each one strikes independently, and the body continues to attack as well. When you've depleted half its health, the boss will start to suck up members of the audience and use them as ammunition for his rapid-fire cannon. Hit A in a quick rhythm to guard, but don't just hammer on the button.

Use Vivian's Flery Jinx or Yoshi's Stampede to destroy both of 2.0's fists as soon as they detach. They'll eventually regenerate, but you'll get a brief respite from their assaults. Also, save your Star Power for a Sweet Feast—chances are you'll need to replenish your HP before the battle's over.

BOWSER'S EVENT

In the final Bowser event (awww!), the only thing you have to do is examine the lock on the entrance to the Poshley Sanctum. That will trigger a cut scene in which the penguin with the improbably large brain meets the Koopa King with the impressively sharp teeth. There's also a thinly veiled shot at Luigi, which we wholly disapprove of.

ESCAPE THE FORTRESS

Before you return to Rogueport, take the elevator to sublevel 4. Headright, and open the door at the end of the hall to enter TEC's room. The computer will divulge Princess Peach's location and instruct you to escape via the teleporter on sublevel 2 (see the map on page 78).

THE THOUSAND-YEAR- YEAR DOOR

THE BEGINNING OF THE END

PROFESSOR FRANKLY WILL MEET YOU OUTSIDE THE TELEPORTATION ROOM BENEATH ROGUEPORT. AFTER YOU'VE APPRISED HIM OF THE SITUATION, MAKE YOUR USUAL ROUNDS THROUGH TOWN THEN MEET THE PROFESSOR AT THE THOUSAND-YEAR DOOR TO BEGIN THE FINAL CHAPTER.

PALACE OF SHADOW

THE PALACE OF SHADOW WILL PUT ALL OF YOUR SKILLS AND PARTNERSHIPS TO THE TEST. IT ALSO SEEMS TO BE A HOT SPOT AMONG MARIO'S ENEMIES—YOU'LL FACE NO FEWER THAN FIVE BOSS BATTLES BY THE END.

1 PROCEED WITH CAUTION

Spikes will rise from the floor as you advance through the hall at point 1. To avoid them, enter walk very slowly (they'll pop up in front of you before you step on them) or refer to the map on page 84 to see where they are.

2 TRIAL BY FIRE

The rotating flames on the walkway will put Mario's legendary jumping ability to the test. Before you go down the stairs, you can grab a Boo's Sheet from an invisible block directly above the small brown platform. To get past the oncoming flames that follow, jump over the low ones and use Vivian to duck beneath the high ones.

3 SKELETON CREW

When you examine the Dark Bones in front of the door, it will run away and hundreds of Dry Bones will flood the room (similar to what happened in Hooktail Castle). Use your hammer to clear a path, and follow the Dark Bones through the crowd. You'll need to initiate a battle with it and emerge victorious to get your hands on the key.

4 FOLLOW THE TORCH

The room at point 4 is like a maze—it will repeat indefinitely unless you exit through the correct door on the right (the doors on the left will return you to the previous room). The secret is to always choose the door on the floor that has a lit torch. To make it even easier for you, we've noted the correct order: bottom, bottom, top, top, bottom, top, bottom.

5 GLOOMTAIL

HP 80 ATTACK 8 DEFENSE 2

Follow the map to Gloomtail's lair at point 5 (see page 86). At the beginning of the battle, the boss will behave in much the same way as his little sister, Hooktail. As you deplete his health, however, he'll add a couple of new attacks. First, he'll leap into the air and come down hard. As soon as he lands, press the A Button to guard. Later, he'll occasionally raise his attack power. When he does, hit him with Mario then use Vivian's Veil ability to take cover—you don't want to be on the receiving end of the Megabreath that follows.

Gloomtail's breath is poisonous, so equip the Feeling Fine badge if you have it. Also, keep in mind that emerging from Vivian's Veil constitutes your turn. Gloomtail will attack immediately afterward, so keep your HP in double digits.

6 DOWN THE HATCH

Once you've expelled the Star Key from Gloomtail's gullet, return to the fountain and toss Bobbery into the maws of the two Chomp statues. Jump down the warp pipes and hit the blue! Switches in the background to unfold a pair of boat panels, which you can use to sail to the nearby building.

7 THREE AND TWO

Your next objective is to gather eight Palace Keys. You can collect them in any order, but we'll start with the room at point 7. Hit the red !Block on the left three times, then hit the block on the right twice. The treasure chest that materializes contains your first key.

8 WIND POWER

To reveal the treasure chest beyond the first door to your right, face the middle of the room and use Florrie's Gale Force to blow away a piece of paper acting as an invisible barrier.

9 THE WALL THAT WASN'T THERE

You can just walk through the right-hand wall in the room at point 9 (no paper tomfoolery or explosives required). Bop the blue !Block on the other side to summon the treasure chest.

10 BONEYARD

Head upstairs and enter the first door on the left. Defeat all four skeletons in order from weakest (as listed below) to strongest (as listed below), then hit the blue !Block that appears to earn another Palace Key.

11 BASHFUL BLOCK

In the room at point 11, pull yourself into the shadows with Vivian. Memorize the location of the blue !Block that reveals itself, because it will disappear when you reemerge.

12 THE WALL THAT GOT BLOWN UP

Throw Admiral Bobbery at the right-hand wall in the room at point 12. The resultant hole is the testimony to the mustachioed Bob-omb's devastating firepower. Step through and collect another Palace Key.

13 14 BLOCKS CONNECTED BY FATE

The blocks in rooms 13 and 14 are linked. If you smash a gray block in one of the rooms, you'll also destroy the red block at the corresponding location in the other room. Bash the gray blocks on the floor in each area, then pulverize the ones on the pedestals. Afterward, hit the blue Block in each room to obtain your final two Palace Keys.

15 THE KEYMASTER

You and your partner will have no idea what the enormous device on the top floor does, so naturally the best course of action is to turn it on (it's not like you're in an ancient palace of demonic evil or anything). Place the Star Key in the stone pedestal, then insert a Palace Key into each pillar that arises (the order doesn't matter).

16 BELDAM, MARILYN AND DOOPLISS

BELDAM	HP 30	ATTACK 5	DEFENSE 0
MARILYN	HP 40	ATTACK 7	DEFENSE 0
DOOPLISS	HP 40	ATTACK 7	DEFENSE 0

Beldam, Marilyn and Doopliss will ambush you to the east of the fountain—save your progress before you head over there. Beldam has a variety of status-affecting techniques, and her blizzard blast can freeze both members of your party. Make her your first target, then go after Marilyn. If the big-boned Shadow Siren raises her Attack power twice, use Vivian's Veil to avoid the subsequent beatdown (Marilyn's lightning can deal 20-plus points of damage to you and your partner). Doopliss doesn't pose much of a threat, so save him for last.

The crafty shape-shifter can transform into either you or your partner (he'll switch throughout the battle), and he's more apt to use your special attacks than he was during your previous encounter. Nevertheless, he's far less dangerous than either of the Shadow Sirens.

17 DYNAMIC DUOS

Walk down the stairs and use Flurrie's Gale Force at the far end of the hall to uncover a tunnel. Follow it up and to your left behind the wall, then ride Yoshi to the next ledge and head through the door.

18 HOLD, PLEASE

Hold Koops next to the red Block and stand at the edge of the landing atop the stairs to your left. When you release Koops, a panel will slide out from the wall to fill the gap—quickly jump across, then go down the stairs and into the next room.

19 BLOCK BE GONE

Step through the door on your left, then carefully climb the stairs and pound the small green block. When you return to the previous room, the large green block that was standing in your path will be gone. Hop on Yoshi and float across the gap to a set of stairs.

20 RISE AND FALL

Climb to the top of the stairs and fall to your right. Hammer the small purple block below, then step on the large one quickly before it starts to rise. At the top, ride Yoshi across the gap to your right and hit the small red block, then hold Koops next to it. When the large red block rises, stand on it and release Koops. As the block falls, jump into the opening to your right, then roll into a tube and hop across the gap between you and the door marked E.

21 CROSS THE GAP

Yoshi doesn't have quite enough in him to carry Mario's ample frame past the spikes at point 21, so do a Spring Jump and shimmy across the poles instead (the yellow lines on the carpet indicate where you should leap from).

22 LOOK OUT BELOW

Climb the stairs and throw Admiral Bobby from the edge of the landing. When he explodes, he'll trigger the red I Block. Switch below, and a panel will protrude from the wall in front of you. As you jump across the gap, watch out for the Chain Chomp on the other side. The stars on the wall will be important later, but because you bought this guide, you needn't trouble yourself with memorizing the pattern.

23 WHEEL OF FORTUNE

Ascend the rest of the stairs, turn right and jump onto the platform at the bottom of the large brown wheel. Use Koops to nab the white Palace Key, then drop back down and unlock the door at the top of the stairs.

24 STAR BRIGHT

Roll into a tube to hop up the last few stairs, then hit only the red I Blocks that are in the same positions as the stars that were illuminated in the previous area. If you don't remember the pattern, you're screwed. We kid! From right to left, hit the second, fourth, fifth and seventh blocks.

25 A SMASHING GOOD TIME

If you triggered the red I Blocks correctly, the brown wheel will start to move. Ride it to the other set of stairs and make your way to point 25. Use Flurry to blow the cover off the large block, then wind up and smash it with your hammer to reveal a wooden panel. Execute a Spin Jump to smash through the panel and drop to the room below. Stand on the Coin Block and jump to reach a Point Swap.

26 SHORT FLIGHT

Carefully navigate the narrow walkway and enter the door to your right. From the paper-airplane panel, fly to the exit in the middle of the room. (You can keep soaring to nab the Life Shroom and Shooting Star, then use the spring to get back to the paper-airplane panel.)

27 YOUR LOYAL STEED

A panel will slide out to fill the gap at point 27 when you strike the red I Block close by. To get up the stairs before the panel retracts back into the wall, you'll need to hop on Yoshi and have him giddyap as quickly as he can.

28 FLY, FLY AWAY

With another Palace Key in your possession, return to the paper-airplane panel via the spring in the bottom left-hand corner (watch out for Phantom Embers down there). You must then put your flight range to the test by gliding all the way to the door at the other end of the hall.

29 GRODUS

GRODUS	HP 50	ATTACK 7	DEFENSE 1
GRODUS X	HP 3	ATTACK 4	DEFENSE 0

You'll have to fight the next two bosses one right after the other, so be sure to bring plenty of healing items. Try to enter the battle with around 80 Star Points, if possible, so you can level up and replenish your stats before you face Bowser. Grodus starts the battle with four Grodus Xs that surround him in a force field. If you destroy one of the Xs, the force field will break, but each of the remaining satellites will give the boss a +1 Defense boost. Grodus himself uses magic attacks that can hurt both you and your partner, freeze you or stop time.

Grodus can regenerate two Grodus Xs per turn, but it's worth taking them out to lower his Defense and to avoid their attacks. Use a move that damages multiple foes at once to destroy the satellites, then have your other character work on Grodus. Multibounce is a nice and cheap, if difficult, option, but Florrie's Gale Force works well, too.

30 BOWSER AND KAMMY KOOPA

BOWSER	HP 70	ATTACK 7	DEFENSE 2
KAMMY KOOPA	HP 50	ATTACK 5	DEFENSE 0

Bowser and Kammy Koopa won't give you a moment to recuperate; heal at the beginning of the battle, if need be. Bowser follows roughly the same pattern as he did in the Glicetville arena. His bite is sometimes poisonous, and you may not be able to move for a while if he jumps on you. Kammy fires projectiles, and uses magic to make herself electrified or invisible, raise her ATK and DEF or restore her HP. Focus your most powerful attacks on the witch to eliminate her from the battle as quickly as possible.

Once you defeat Kammy Koopa, remind the Koopa King of what happens when he and Mario dance. His attacks can do quite a bit of damage, but you should be used to them from your grudge match in Glicetville. Don't be afraid to use items or Sweet Feast if you need to heal. You'll be able to replenish your stats and supplies before you confront the final boss.

BOSS SHADOW QUEEN

150	7	0

When the Shadow Queen asks if you wish to become her servant, answer "no," or the game will end. At the beginning of the battle, her evil highness can hit you with a quick lightning strike, boost her ATK and DEF or pull you into the shadows for three successive strikes. After you deplete about half of her HP, she'll change into a much more frightening form with two large hands that act independently (they'll either slap you or absorb some of your HP). Occasionally, she'll swap out her hands with a bevy of appendages that emerge from the floor and can hit you three or four times per onslaught. She'll also add various status-affecting breath attacks to her arsenal. Keep hitting her for the next three rounds—she won't take any damage, but you'll trigger a cut scene in which both she and your party completely recover their strength. Afterward, you'll be able to hurt her again.

Take out the Shadow Queen's hands with one character while the other focuses on the boss herself. She'll regenerate her appendages every turn, but it'll reduce the amount of damage you take. When the queen boosts her ATK by +7, use Vivian's Veil to take cover immediately. Also, equip the Feeling Fine badges if you have them. They'll protect you from becoming confused or poisoned.

INFORMATION JOURNAL

TATTLE LOG

MARIO'S FOES ARE MANY AND VARIED. ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES, WE'VE LISTED EVERY ENEMY ALPHABETICALLY WITH ITS STATS, THE LOCATION OF ITS FIRST APPEARANCE, ITS TATTLE LOG NUMBER, AND A BRIEF DESCRIPTION PROVIDED BY GOOMBELLA.

BOOK WORM

When you use Goombella's Tattle on an enemy during a fight, she'll look it up in her book and add the baddie to your Tattle Log. You can then reference her findings at any time via the Journal option in the Start menu. Once you've Tattled on an enemy, its HP bar will always appear beneath it during battle.

LOST KNOWLEDGE

If you've missed the opportunity to Tattle on an enemy (you'll fight most bosses only once, for example), you can still add it to your Tattle Log. Just search the yellow trash can in Professor Frankly's house once you've vanquished the foe. An entry will appear in the trash only if you can never fight the enemy again.

SPECIAL MOVES

THE STAR-POWERED SPECIAL MOVES ARE THE MIGHTIEST WEAPONS IN YOUR ARSENAL, BUT YOU HAVE TO KNOW HOW TO USE THEM. THAT'S WHERE THIS PAGE COMES IN. READ ON FOR AN EXPLANATION OF EACH MOVE.

SWEET TREAT

SP: 1

With the Sweet Treat, you can restore Heart Points for both you and your companion, as well as Flower Points. A targeting reticule will move up and down in an arc in front of Mario as icons fall from above. Flick the Control Stick left to shoot the flower and heart icons. Each one will replenish a point. Avoid hitting the poison mushrooms, though; they'll prevent you from firing for a few moments.

ART ATTACK

SP: 4

The Art Attack damages all enemies that you encircle with the star. Simply manipulate the Control Stick to draw circles around the desired targets. The circles don't have to be perfect, but they must be completely enclosed. If you're a veteran of Bill Cosby's PicturePages, this should be a cakewalk.

DAMAGE: UNLIMITED HP

EARTH TREMOR

SP: 2

The Earth Tremor shakes the ground to damage every enemy onstage. Press the A Button as the gauge passes through each circle. The longer you can go without missing a circle (up to five gauges), the more damage the attack will inflict. Each gauge moves faster than the last.

DAMAGE: 1 TO 6 HP

SWEET FEAST

SP: 5

The Sweet Feast is similar to the Sweet Treat, but you can launch stars rapid-fire by simply holding the Control Stick to the left instead of flicking it (you'll still want to let up on the stick to avoid hitting poison mushrooms). Additionally, the large icons will each replenish five Heart Points or Flower Points when you hit them.

CLOCK OUT

SP: 2

Immobilize all of your enemies for a short period of time with Clock Out. The attack plays out like a game of hot potato. Press the button that appears over your opponents to toss the boss at them, then mash on the button as fast as possible (note that the button changes every couple of seconds). The better you do, the longer your foes will be unable to move.

SHOWSTOPPER

SP: 2

The Showstopper can defeat all of your opponents with a single blow (it doesn't work against bosses, though). Press the buttons in the order they appear onscreen. There are five sequences in all—the more of them you complete, the better your chances of annihilating your foes.

POWER LIFT

SP: 3

If executed well, the Power Lift will increase your party's Attack and Defense power briefly. Position the targeting reticule over the orange and blue arrows that appear in the three symbols (red, blue, and green) and press A to lift the object to the left. (Avoid the poison mushrooms.) You'll receive +1 to your ATK every 2 seconds and 10% to your DEF every 2 seconds. +1 to your ATK every 2 seconds. You'll receive +1 to your ATK every 2 seconds.

SUPERNOVA

SP: 6

The Supernova doesn't actually involve the explosion of a very large star (which the star may reach a few moments into), but it does deal massive damage to every enemy onscreen. Although it's a very powerful move, it's also a very slow one.

DAMAGE: 1 TO 10 HP

REWARD INFORMATION

Mousimilian has forgotten his latest money-making scheme and needs your help to jog his memory. Hammer his skull repeatedly and rattle his brain. Be careful: if you hit him one time too many he'll forget again. Once shock therapy works, he'll reveal his plan of arbitrage. You can buy Sleepy Sheep from the Rogueport shop and sell it in Petalburg for a two-coin profit. Yay, knowledge!

CLIENT BOMBERTO (IN ROGUEPORT)
TITLE I'M HUNGRY!
REWARD 11 COINS

Bomberto's forgetful (or famished) wife delivered him the one thing a salty sailor fears most—an empty lunchbox. Meet him at the docks and give him a food item from your inventory (the cheaper it is, the better). He'll scarf it down and pay you the meager fee of 11 coins for dropping off the groceries.

CLIENT KOOPOOK (IN HOOKTAIL CASTLE)
TITLE TRY TO FIND ME!
REWARD SPECIAL CARD

To solve this challenge, you'll have to return to Hooktail Castle. Navigate the musty dungeons and circle back toward the storage room where you first met Mr. Mowz. Just outside the storage room door, drop down one level to find your hidden bounty (and a Life Shroom you can use to complete the Puni Elder quest). Watch the Koopa reunion and collect the Special Card.

CLIENT MAYOR KRODP (IN PETALBURG)
TITLE LISTEN TO ME!
REWARD TURTLEY LEAF

The mayor of Petalburg needs some companionship. Due to the laws of town (and water), your solution is to sit and listen to the old man's musings. Pour yourself a double espresso, 'cause this guy can talk the ears off an elephant. Grab your Turtley Leaf, and flee before the Marfack marathon begins.

CLIENT PLENN T. (IN ROGUEPORT)
TITLE ORDER ME AN ITEM!
REWARD ULTRA SHROOM

Plenn T. has a special request: he wants to order a Shroom. He's a bit of a snob, so he'll only buy the Ultra Shroom. You can find one in the Great Tree. Head back to Rogueport and give it to Plenn T. He'll be happy to see you, and you'll get your reward.

CLIENT PUNI ELDER (IN THE GREAT TREE)
TITLE EMERGENCY SHROOM!
REWARD 60 COINS

If you managed to hold on to that Life Shroom from Koopook's mission, you'll profit big this time. If you used it already, head to the chic shop on Rogueport's west side and purchase one for a whopping 50 coins. Head back to the Great Tree and make a Puni Elder happy. Your reward is 60 coins—a fine prize if the Shroom was free, but a pittance if not.

CLIENT LAHLA (IN ROGUEPORT)
TITLE PLAY WITH ME
REWARD 10 PIANTAS

Go visit Lahla behind the counter at Pianta Parlor on Rogueport's west side. She'll bestow you with 10 Piantas (arcade tokens) for use in the slot machines to your right. Time your button presses to the "bleeps" of the game to win. You can cash in your play money for prizes (Cake Mix comes in handy later), or try the unlocked Plane Mode game.

CLIENT PINE T. JR. (IN ROGUEPORT SEWERS)
TITLE HELP MY DADDY!
REWARD SILVER CARD

Pine T. Jr.'s father has descended into the pit of 100 Trials in search of treasure to support his family. Fight your way to level 99 and rescue him. At level 99 you can warp back to the top and reunite father and son. Your reward is Jr.'s Silver Card, which activates the Paper Mode game at Pianta Parlor.

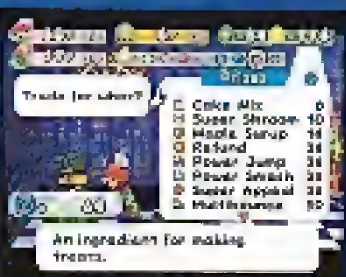

CLIENT JOLENE (IN THE GLITZ PIT)
TITLE HELP WANTED!
REWARD 30 COINS

Jolene is looking for help in the Glitz Pit. She needs someone to help her with the trials. You can help her by completing the trials and earning the Silver Card. Your reward is 30 coins.

CLIENT MERLEE (IN ROGUEPORT SEWERS)
TITLE HEARTFUL CAKE RECIPE...
REWARD 30 COINS

Merlee wishes to bake the magical Heartful Cake, but does not recall the recipe. After your chat in the charmer's hut in the Rogueport sewer back-ground, head to Petalburg and talk to Toco T. in her home next to Koops's place. You'll learn that the recipe calls for Cake Mix and Subversion Syrup. Save yourself a trip by picking up some Cake Mix at Pianta Parlor before returning to Merlee for another.

CLIENT MAYOR DOOR (IN TWILIGHT TOWN)
TITLE NEWSLETTER...
REWARD 30 COINS

Visit Mayor Door, then deliver the Silver Club Newsletter to the Poni Elder in the Great Tree. From there, drop it off with the Mayor of Petalburg, who "cough" asks you to forward it back to Mayor Door due to a nasty "cough" cold. Return the wretched circular to Mayor Door and quit your paper route.

CLIENT ZESS T. (IN ROGUEPORT)
TITLE SEEKING LEGENDARY BOOK!
REWARD HONEY SHROOM

Your pal Zess T. (the contact-loser) needs a book to hone her culinary skills. Return to Creepy Steeple and roll down the passageway near the entrance door. Inside you'll find some goodies and the storied cookbook you seek. Rush back to the crabby cook and give her the goods. She'll learn two-ingredient recipes, and will whip up a Honey Shroom for your compensation.

CLIENT BUB-ULBER (IN PETALBURG)
TITLE THE FOOD I WANT.
REWARD DRIED FLOWERS

Saddle up, delivery boy—Bub-ulber loves Glitzville Hot Dogs and Mousse, and he wants his lunch! Purchase two savory bun puppies, then deliver Cake Mix to Zess T. She'll whip up some dessert. Head down to Petalburg and earn your tip of Dried Flowers. Lousy tipper....

CLIENT EVE (IN TWILIGHT TOWN)
TITLE TELL THAT PERSON...
REWARD METEOR MEAL

A former star of the Broadshroom stage, Eve of Twilight Town wishes to reconnect with an old flame, one Mr. Podley of Rogueport. Backtrack to the Inn and speak with the proprietor. The heart-breaker will deny the romance (a typical response from a handsome gigolo). The news upsets, yet liberates the mother who'll then celebrate closure and share a hearty meal with you.

CLIENT GOOM GOOM (IN PIRATE'S GROTTTO)
TITLE LOOKING FOR A GAL!
REWARD COUPLE'S CAKE

Another matchmaking melody awaits you in the storage room at Pirate's Grotto. Goom Goom is looking for love. Introduce him to Goombella. What ensues is an awkward courtship befitting of a John Hughes flick. Your partner snubs his advances, driving him off. Pick up the rejected Couple's Cake.

CLIENT ??? (IN ROGUEPORT)
TITLE ELUSIVE BADGE!
REWARD ATTACK FX Y

Mr. Mowz, the zany resident of Rogueport, wants you to bring him an elusive badge. Return him to the town of Petalburg and you'll get a reward. Travel back to the town of Rogueport and return to Mr. Mowz. He'll reward you with an Attack FX Y. (The badge is a yellow badge with a red 'Y' on it.)

CLIENT FRANKIE (IN ROGUEPORT)
TITLE IMPORTANT THING
REWARD GOLD CARD

Meet Frankie in the west side of Rogueport near the Green Tractor. Return to the town of Rogueport and give him the Glitzing Dog. He'll reward you with a Gold Card. (The Gold Card is a gold card with a red 'Y' on it.)

CLIENT CHEF SHIMI (IN EXCESS EXPRESS)
TITLE GET THESE INGREDIENTS!
REWARD 40 COINS

Chef Shimi, infamous butcher of the English language, needs a Golden Leaf, a Mystic Egg and a Keel Mango for his latest dish. Revisit the northern corridor of Creepy Steeple, squeeze through the fence and head east to shake the leaf from the tree. Get the egg from Petal in the Great Tree (play her game first). Lastly, warp to Keelhaul Key and whack a nearby palm tree to acquire the mango.

CLIENT GOB (IN FAHR OUTPOST)
TITLE I CAN'T SPEAK!
REWARD 20 COINS

To hasten this mission, visit the Toad Bros. Bazaar and purchase Honey Syrup, then buy Cake Mix from Pianta Parlor. Zess T. can then combine the components to make a Honey Candy lozenge. Travel to the Fahr Outpost and visit Gob outside the inn near the save point. Talk to the mute, then give him his candy.

CLIENT TOADIA (IN POSHLEY HEIGHTS)
TITLE I WANNA MEET LUIGI!
REWARD CHOCO CAKE

A certain young lady of Poshley Heights is dying to meet your brother. Luigi will not rendezvous with Toadia (it's not a conversation option), so you must don his clothes to complete the quest. Snatch the L Emblem badge from the upper reaches of Poshley Stadium. Equip it and watch mayhem unfold.

CLIENT DOE T. (IN BOGGLY WOODS)
TITLE ROUST THESE CADS!
REWARD 20 COINS

It's vigilante plumber time, ol' chap. Warp to the Great Tree and purge the Boggly Woods of its standard throng of scoundrels. You've fought these sods, scalawags and simpletons time and time again, so expect a quick payoff. Mop up, meet up and move on.

CLIENT TODDLES (IN POSHLEY HEIGHTS)
TITLE I MUST HAVE THAT BOOK.
REWARD PLATINUM CARD

The princess of Poshley Heights lent a book to Miss Jolana of the Glitz Pit. Return the best-seller to Toddles. Take the blimp to Glitzville and stop by the manager's office. Jolana will hand over a rather embarrassing book (a wrestling mag full of buff athletes) that she borrowed for research purposes. Return the well-thumbed copy to Toddles and collect your reward.

CLIENT BUB (POSHLEY HEIGHTS)
TITLE HELP ME MAKE UP.
REWARD 3 COINS

Remorseful young Bub needs your expert delivery skills to patch things up with his mother Sylvia. He's written a touching apology, but needs an accompanying gift to seal the deal. You can choose to bring him Shroom Cake (made by mixing a Mushroom + Cake Mix), Keel Mango or a Fright Mask. The reward for completion is meager, but touching. Ok, just meager.

CLIENT BUSINESSMAN (IN GLITZVILLE)
TITLE SECURITY CODE ...
REWARD HOT SAUCE

A weasely businessman from the Excess Express lost the combination to his briefcase. Important business plans are locked inside. To save his job, you will need to visit the following locations and count the chairs there. Each number is a digit in the forgotten combination. The correct counts are as follows: Koops's house (2), Flurrie's pad (6), Don Pianta's office (2) and Toddles's chateau (5). Give him the code 2625; you'll get a bottle of Hot Sauce in reward.

CLIENT SWOB (IN FAHR OUTPOST)
TITLE ERASE THAT GRAFFITI!
REWARD SNOW BUNNY

The final Trouble Center mission covers exactly half of the Pit of 100 Trials. Stock up on supplies then clear each floor of the pit of monsters. At level 50, teas Bobbery at the wall—he'll blow apart the offending tags. Once you're done, visit Swob for your Snow Bunny. Take a moment to revel in your success. If you've made it this far, you are a bona fide Paper Mario master. Well done.

CLIENT GOLDBOB (IN POSHLEY HEIGHTS)
TITLE DELIVERY, PLEASE!
REWARD 64 COINS

GoldBob requires delivery of a package to General White. Before long, that turns into another case of "chase the general." Traipse on over to the Fahr Outpost, only to discover that White left for Roguesport. Return to the Roguesport Inn and talk with Paddy. Head to the Glitzville juice bar and chat with the owner. Return to Poshley Heights, speak with GoldBob then head to the Fahr Outpost again. Wake up the general and drop off the package.

PIT OF 100 TRIALS

MANY WHO DARE TO VENTURE 100 LEVELS BENEATH ROGUEPORT DO NOT SURVIVE THE HORRORS THERE. MUSTER EVERY OUNCE OF COURAGE, AND PREPARE FOR THE TOUGHEST FIGHT OF ALL.

ENEMIES	HP	ATK	DEF	Pg.	HP	ATK	DEF	Pg.	HP	ATK	DEF	Pg.
ARANTULA	16	7	0	94	ELITE WIZZERD	12	8	5	98	SPIKY GLOOMBA	7	4	0	105
BOB-ULK	10	4	2	95	PIRANHA PLANT	15	9	0	103	SPUNIA	12	7	2	105
DARK BRISTLE	8	8	4	97	POISON PUFF	15	8	0	103	SWAMPIRE	20	6	0	105

IT'S THE PITS...

Below Rogueport's surface lie 10 treasure chests surrounded by 100 floors of doom and gloom. There are no save points, no comfortable beds nor any comforts of home here. Finish the story mode and level up to 30 before jumping into the pit if you want to make it out alive.

A sign at the entrance of the fearsome place displays the last level you attained, as well as Multibounce records and Star Piece tallies.

Stock up on Life Shrooms, Ultra Shrooms and a few Boo's Sheets in preparation for your descent. To advance through floors, you must beat every enemy in each battle. A warp pipe will rise from the floor, allowing you access to the next room. You can rest after each fight, but you cannot save.

MOVERS AND MERCHANTS

Periodically you will encounter a mover on random floors who can transport you down two or five levels, or back up to the top—for a fee. You'll also encounter a merchant milling about hawking healing items and supplies. As you might expect, his wares get pricier the farther you descend into the pit (maybe he's giving himself hazard pay?).

TEN TREASURE TROVES

A treasure chest awaits on every 10th floor. Check your equipped badges periodically and shuffle them around. Don't get offended when you see the message, "You got the Strange Sack!" It's an item that doubles your inventory space, silly.

FLOOR	TREASURE
10	SLEEPY STOMP BADGE
20	FIRE DRIVE BADGE
30	ZAP TAP BADGE
40	PITY FLOWER BADGE
50	STRANGE SACK
60	DOUBLE DIP BADGE
70	DOUBLE DIP P BADGE
80	BUMP ATTACK BADGE
90	LUCKY DAY BADGE
100	RETURN POSTAGE BADGE

BONETAILED HP 200 ATTACK 8 DEFENSE 2

After you best your enemies on floor 99, take a moment to heal your party. Check your inventory and take stock of your possessions—some of those items will make the difference between a frustrating defeat and a joyous victory. The moment you drop down the warp pipe to the 100th floor, the epic fight vs. Bonetail will begin. Cast Flurrie's Dodgy Fog move on Mario to automatically protect him from some attacks. Use the Boo's Sheet if your HP gets dangerously low.

Bonetail has massive HP reserves. To whittle away his health at a faster clip, invoke Power Lift to boost your active party's attack and defense stats. Execute perfect timing with Power Bounce. Repeat this method as necessary. Use stylish moves to replenish your Star Power gauge.
